1. Vacancies.—The following vacancies will be filled by direct appointments:—

Bengal Junior Civil Service	10
-----------------------------	-----	-----	----

In addition to these appointments, two appointments in the Upper Division of the Bengal Secretariat clerical service will be available to candidates who qualify for appointment to the abovenamed service but whose places in the list are not sufficiently high to enable them to secure appointments to the Bengal Junior Civil Service.

Under the terms of the Finance Department Resolution No. 3219F., dated the 7th August 1931, the new recruits will on first appointment be appointed on a provisional basis and draw as initial pay that at present sanctioned, minus 15 per cent. They will later be brought on to such new scale of pay as may be determined. No direct appointment will be made to the Bengal Civil Service (Executive), the Bengal Police Service, the Bengal Excise Service, or the Bengal Junior Excise Service.

Each candidate will be required to specify in his application the service or services for which he desires to compete, placing them in the order of his preference, and the choice thus indicated will be final. Appointments will be assigned to successful competitors with due consideration of their choice and the number of vacancies in the services.

2. Method of recruitment.—The appointments will be made by competitive examination in the manner prescribed in Part B of Schedule II of the Bengal Provincial Services Recruitment Rules.

3. Qualifications.—The indispensable qualifications of a candidate are—

(i) that he is a native of Bengal or has a permanent domicile within the Presidency of Bengal;

(ii) that he is a natural born subject of His Majesty, or of an Indian State in respect of whom the Governor General in Council has made a declaration under section 96A of the Government of India Act;

(iii) that he shall have attained the age of 22 and shall not have attained the age of 25 on the 1st October 1933;

(iv) that he is a graduate of a recognised University;

(v) that he is of good character; and

(vi) that he is of sound health, good physique, active habits and free from organic defect or bodily infirmity.

Along with his application every candidate shall submit proof of his age as explained in the form of application and certificates, written not more than one year prior to the date of his application, from two responsible persons unconnected with his College or University, and not related to him, testifying to his private character and stating that he is a native of or has a permanent domicile within the Province of Bengal.

Either copies attested by the nominating authorities or by responsible persons or originals of the certificates may be submitted.

4. Applications—Method of submission of fee, etc.—(i) A person desiring to be admitted to the examination shall apply before the 10th November 1933 to the head of the college from which he passed his examination for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, Science, Commerce,

* Copies of these Rules (price annas six) are obtainable from the Officer in charge, Book Depot, Bengal Secretariat, Calcutta.

etc. A candidate who passed the examination as a non-collegiate student shall send in his application to the Registrar, Calcutta University, together with a certificate of character signed by the Principal of his college if he was connected with one, and by the Magistrate of the district in which he is resident in other cases; candidates from the Dacca University shall apply to the Registrar, Dacca University. All other candidates (not included in the previously mentioned categories) shall apply to the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal:

Provided that in no case shall a candidate apply to more than one of these authorities, and that such application shall always be made through their Durbars by persons resident in a State in India.

(ii) Applications shall be made, in the form shown in Schedule I, copies of which may be obtained from the heads of colleges, the Registrars of the Calcutta and Dacca Universities, and the Director of Public Instruction.

(iii) No application will be taken into consideration by the receiving authority unless it is accompanied by non-judicial stamps of the value of Rs. 5 or a chalan showing payment into a Government treasury in Bengal of the sum of Rs. 5. This payment is obligatory whether such application is subsequently rejected or not. Applications stamped with postage stamps will not be accepted.

The Government of Bengal will appoint a Selection Committee to examine the applications of nominated candidates and their eligibility for admission to the examinations. This Committee will be composed of officials and non-officials in equal numbers and will be presided over by a high officer of Government.

6. Nomination.—The heads of colleges, the Registrars of the Calcutta and Dacca Universities, and the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, shall forward to the Selection Committee before the 25th November 1933, the applications of candidates nominated in accordance with the allotment of nominations shown in Schedule II and shall certify the moral character of each candidate so nominated. The application of non-collegiate students nominated by the Registrar of the Calcutta University should be supported by the character certificates mentioned in paragraph 3 above. In making these nominations, due regard should be paid to the desirability of different classes and communities being represented in the public service. Care should be taken to nominate only such candidates as are likely to pass the medical examination since experience shows that a considerable number of candidates successful in the literary examination fail to pass the medical test.

7. Selection certificates.—In order to make the appraisement of individual merits of candidates possible, the Selection Committee shall issue certificates of selection to such of the nominated candidates, not exceeding 200 in all, as it considers, qualified to appear at the examination. The selection or rejection of a candidate by the Selection Committee shall be final, and no candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he holds such a certificate:

Provided that in making their choice the Selection Committee shall give all possible consideration to the cases of candidates of the minority communities and the backward classes and shall call for further nominations from the heads of colleges or Commissioners of Divisions if the number of selected Muhammadan candidates does not reach 45 per cent. of the total number selected.

8. Particulars of candidates.—The Selection Committee may require such further proof or particulars from the candidates as it may consider necessary, and may make enquiries regarding their character and domicile.

9. Examination fee and time-table.—Every candidate to whom a certificate of selection has been issued will, within a week from the date of its receipt, deposit in the nearest treasury in Bengal a sum of Rs. 50 as examination fee and forward the receipt for the same to the Secretary to the Selection Committee. No part of the fee will be returnable to a candidate. Delay in this respect may render a candidate's name liable to removal from the list of examinees. On complying with this requirement, the candidates will receive from the Secretary a time-table for the examination. The examination will commence on the 12th February 1934 and will be held at the Presidency College, Calcutta.

10. Canvassing.—Any attempt on the part of a candidate to enlist support for his application through persons of influence or officials of Government will disqualify him for appointment. Spontaneous recommendations from persons interested in the candidates, or otherwise known to them, will be disregarded.

11. Ineligibility of Government servants.—Unless specially exempted by Government by general or special order, no person holding a substantive appointment in Government service is eligible to appear at the competitive examinations. Whenever such exemption is granted, the candidate will be subject to selection by the Selection Committee, as if he were duly nominated under paragraph 6 above.

12. Syllabus of examination and marks.—The examinations will be held in the subjects and according to the syllabus shown in Schedule III which also indicates the numerical value to be attached to each paper at the examination.

As the possession of a knowledge of a provincial vernacular is an essential condition of appointment, candidates, whose ordinary spoken and written language is not Bengali, must take up translation from English into one of the provincial vernaculars named below:—

(i) Bengali,

(iii) Urdu,

(ii) Hindi,

(iv) Nepali,

and vice versa in the compulsory paper. Successful candidates, however, who have offered any language other than Bengali in that paper and are appointed to a service for which there is a Departmental Examination, will be required to pass completely the Departmental Examinations in Bengali within two years of the date of their appointment to the service.

13. Medical Examination.—As soon as the results of the examinations have been declared, a proportion of the candidates who have qualified will be called upon to appear before a Medical Board for a certificate of their fitness for Government service in form A of Schedule IV of the Bengal Provincial Services Recruitment Rules. An order to appear before the Medical Board must not however be understood to mean that the candidate, if found fit, will necessarily receive an appointment as the number of candidates who will be summoned for medical examination will be slightly in excess of the total number of vacancies, and the question of his appointment will depend upon the results of the medical examination taken as a whole. The regulations governing the physical examination of candidates are set forth in Schedule IV of the Bengal Provincial Services Recruitment Rules and intending candidates are advised before they apply for admission to the examination to satisfy themselves that they are likely to qualify as physically fit under those regulations, for recent experience has shown that a considerable number of the candidates at the competitive examinations are subsequently rejected by the Medical Board as unfit.

G. P. Hogg,

Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal (offg.).

Note.—The attention of the candidates is invited to the introduction of a viva-voce test (vide page 13, Schedule III).

The following notification made by the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, in the exercise of the power vested in it by section 37 of the Letters Patent, is published for general information:—

Notification No. 22691C.

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Appellate Side Rules concerned with the preparation of paper-books, such changes in the manner and procedure of their preparation and such reduction of fees and costs relating thereto as are hereby notified will take effect on and from the 13th November 1933, and until further orders, and will apply—

- (1) in the case of First Appeals from Decrees and Orders, from the time when the translations of vernacular documents for inclusion in the paper-books are submitted for examination whether on or after that date, and
- (2) in the case of Second Appeals, to all such appeals filed on and after the aforesaid date.
- (A) (i) Paper-books in First Appeals valued at Rs. 10,000 or more will be prepared entirely in the Court's office save only that the translation will be made by the appellant's advocate, the examination being done by the existing panel of examiners on fee system, as at present;
- (ii) transcribing (including the examination of manuscripts) will be done by the Court's office;
- (iii) printing charges will be reduced from Re. 1-6 to Re. 1-3 per page;
- (iv) a list of some approved Presses (including the Bengal Government Press) will be maintained and the printing work will be done by them only.
- (B) (i) Paper books in First Appeals valued at less than Rs. 10,000 will be prepared entirely in the office of the appellant's advocate, the examination of translations being done on the fee system by a new panel of examiners;
- (ii) this panel of examiners will be formed from the practising advocates of the Court from which the respondent will select an examiner for examining the translation made by the appellant's advocate. If, however, the respondent fails to enter appearance by the time the appellant submits his translations for examination, he loses his privilege to select the examiner. In such cases, the translations will be examined by the existing panel of examiners.

In all such appeals as come under categories A and B above, the entire estimates for the preparation of the paper-books will, however, continue to be prepared in the office of the Court and served on the parties, upon their filing their "Lists of Papers" as at present. The Court will collect the money due on such estimates from the parties, and from such collection will keep the undertaking advocates in funds necessary for the preparation of the paper-books. When the paper-books are finally prepared, the costs shall be taxed under the direction of the Registrar.

- (C) In the case of Second Appeals exceeding Rs. 50 in value, the Court have decided to dispense with printed paper-books. Before preliminary hearing for admission of the appeal, that is, as soon as the appeal is registered and given a number, the appellant will be required to pay Rs. 10 only, and four typed copies will be prepared in the Court's office, of which two will be for the Court and two will be given to the appellant, to be used both at the preliminary as well as the final hearing; and after admission, as the respondent or separate sets of respondents enter appearance through different advocates, they will be charged at the rate of Rs. 5 each. The appellant will have to supply a copy to the Deputy Registrar if there is a minor whom he represents; he can do so out of the copies which he has received or by purchasing a copy for Rs. 5.

- (D) In the case of Second Appeals not exceeding Rs. 50 in value, the existing system will continue and there will be no levying of compulsory charges on the litigants. After admission of the appeal, however, four copies of typewritten paper-books will be prepared (instead of two, as at present) in the Court's office, of which two will be kept for the use of the Court, one will be given to the Deputy Registrar, if there is a minor for whom he will have to appear, and the remaining copy will sell for Rs. 3, if the appellant or the respondent chooses to purchase the same.

THE BENGAL TENANCY (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1933

BILL

to amend the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885.

WHEREAS it is expedient to further amend the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885 (as amended by the Bengal Tenancy Amendment Act, 1928) ;

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor General has been obtained under sub-section (3) of section 80A of the Government of India Act to the passing of this Act ;

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This Bill is introduced to amend certain procedural laws under the Bengal Tenancy Act which in actual practice are found difficult to work or otherwise produce hardship. There are declaratory provisions also which have been necessitated by certain decisions of the Calcutta High Court creating difficulties in the way of the enforcement of a legal right under the general law. Other provisions are more general and seek to remove certain kinds of hardship.

Clause 3 is intended to help the plaintiff in the choice of a forum. Under the present Act the burgadar not being a tenant, a suit against a burgadar for a share of the produce up to Rs. 500 must be instituted in the Court of Small Causes. Under the present Act also the Court of institution is to determine the status of a burgadar, i.e., whether the burgadar is a tenant or not. If he is a tenant, he has got a title to the land and as such a Court of Small Causes is precluded by law to enter into that question. The result is a deadlock and specially so if the burgadar takes the plea of tenancy. The Courts in order to avoid this difficulty generally dismiss the suits which unfortunately are unappealable. To avoid this difficulty the amendment is introduced.

Sub-section (2) of section 22 unnecessarily takes away the right of appeal formerly enjoyed by bringing such suit within the jurisdiction of Courts of Small Causes. Clause 4 seeks to remove this defect.

Clause 5 is a declaratory clause necessitated by the decision of Mr. Justice Jack in Sukchand Halder vs. Jogeswar Mandle reported in 35 C. W. N., p. 974 (Rev. No. 290 of 1931) which it seems is contrary to the theory of the enforcement of a legal right under the general law. If a person is entitled to a sum of money, he can recover that sum by suit under the general law without the express provision of a statute. The provision is given retrospective effect in order to save many pending suits. The original section ought to have been more explicit. Clauses 6 and 7 are intended to remove certain kinds of hardship suffered by tenants and are only declaratory in nature.

Clause 8 is a necessary provision for protection against fraud.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEPARTMENT.*NOTIFICATION.

No. 2897L.C.—4th September, 1933.—The following report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Mela Sanitation Bill, 1932, by Khan Bahadur Maulvi Azizul Haque, M.L.C., is hereby published for general information.

J. W. McKAY,
Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Council.

Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Mela Sanitation Bill, 1932, by Khan Bahadur M. Azizul Haque, M.L.C.

We, the members of the Select Committee of the Bengal Legislative Council to which the Bengal Mela Sanitation Bill, 1932, was referred by a motion carried in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 22nd November, 1932, beg to submit this our report on the Bill.

A preliminary report was presented to the Council on the 23rd February, 1933, stating that the Committee had not been able to deal with the Bill within the time directed by the Council.

The Committee met for the first time on the 15th December, 1932 and held its final sitting on the 24th August, 1933.

On a detailed examination of the Bill, the Select Committee found that there were existing provisions in the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885, which dealt fully with the subject matter of the Bill in so far as local bodies, other than municipalities, were concerned, but that the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932, did not include similar provisions for municipalities.

Having regard to the long title and preamble of the Bill as referred to the Select Committee we were left with two alternatives, viz :—

- (1) to repeal the provisions in existing law in regard to the local bodies other than municipalities and include them in one self-contained “Bengal Mela Sanitation Bill” governing all local bodies, or
- (2) to report to the Council that we saw no reason to repeal the provisions in existing law and that in so far as municipalities are concerned steps may be taken to introduce a Bill to amend the Bengal Municipal Act by inserting provisions similar to sections 100A, 100B and 100D of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885.

We have decided, with the concurrence of the member in charge of the Bill, to adopt the latter alternative.

We recommend therefore that Government, as soon as a suitable opportunity offers, should include in a Bill for the amendment of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932, the following provisions which, we consider, would carry out fully the purposes of the Bill in so far as the law in this connection does not at present apply to municipalities :—

“Order of the Commissioners requiring licences for melas.—The Commissioners of a municipality may issue an order requiring the owner or the lessee of a mela or the owner or the lessee of any land who intends to establish a mela thereon, to obtain a licence in this behalf from the Commissioners on such terms and conditions, including conditions as to sanitation, and on payment of such fees as the Local Government may by rules prescribe.

Owner not to hold mela without a licence.—When the Commissioners of a municipality have issued an order under the foregoing section no owner or lessee of a mela and no owner or lessee of any land who intends to establish a mela thereon, shall hold a mela except in accordance with the terms and conditions of the licence under that section.

Prohibition of prostitution within melas.—The Commissioners of a municipality may, by public notice, issued at least one month before the date of any mela, prohibit prostitution within such mela or within such area around the mela as may be fixed by the Commissioners."

Power should also be given to the Local Government to make rules in this behalf.

We accordingly recommend that the present Bill be withdrawn.

Any objection or suggestion which may be received in respect of the draft before the said date will be considered by the Governor-General in Council.

Draft Rules

1. These rules may be called the Indian Pilgrim Ships Rules, 1933.

2. In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) "Act" means the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923 (XXI of 1923);

(2) "Approved" means approved by the Governor-General in Council;

(3) "Buoyant Apparatus" means buoyant deck seats or buoyant deck chairs or any other buoyant apparatus excepting boats, life-buoys or life-jackets;

(4) "Compartment" means a space between-decks other than a cabin;

(5) "Form" means a form appended to these rules;

(6) "Inspector" means the officer appointed by the Governor-General in Council for the purposes of sub-section (7) of section 151 and, except in rule 3, includes a person authorised by such officer under section 152;

(7) "Length" in connection with a ship means the registered length of the ship;

(9) "Special Boat-deck" means any deck on which boats are carried and of which the space required for the stowage of boats under rule 22 occupies half or more of the length of such deck;

(10) "Surveyor" means a Surveyor appointed under section 129.

3. On receiving the notice required by section 151, the Inspector shall himself proceed to inspect, or shall give a written authority to some competent person to inspect on his behalf, the ship, her provisions, medical stores, equipment, ventilation, fittings and the like, and the Inspector or person authorised shall satisfy himself that the ship, her provisions, medical stores, equipment, ventilation, fittings and the like fulfil all the requirements imposed by the Act or these rules.

4. The certificates "A" and "B" required under sections 154 and 155 shall be given in Forms I and II respectively and the supplementary certificate B, required under section 198 shall be in Form III.

5. No certificate under section 155 shall be granted between May 20th and September 20th in any year in respect of a ship of a tonnage of less than 500 registered tons, or which is not capable of steaming at least eight knots in ordinary monsoon weather; nor shall such certificate be given at any time unless all the arrangements required by these rules have been made to the entire satisfaction of the Inspector.

6. The Inspector shall see that in all cases where the number of pilgrims exceeds 100, the medical officer of the ship is present at the official inspection and that such medical officer has had an opportunity of satisfying himself as to the completeness of the arrangements made for the accommodation and care of the pilgrims under these rules; and shall require such medical officer to furnish a certificate in Form IV and to sign the second of the certificates prescribed by rule 112.

Boats and appliances for saving life.

7. Davits.—(1) (a) Every pilgrim ship which carries more than 12 berthed passengers shall be provided in accordance with her length with the number of sets of davits specified in column A of the table in rule 37.

(b) Every pilgrim ship which carries 12 berthed passengers or less shall be provided in accordance with her length with the number of sets of davits specified in column C of the table in rule 37:

Provided that no pilgrim ship shall be required to have a number of sets of davits greater than the number of lifeboats required to accommodate the total number of persons the ship is certified to carry on the voyage on which she is proceeding:

Provided further that the Governor-General in Council may, where it appears to him necessary, having regard to the height at which boats are carried above the load line and to other circumstances of the case, require a pilgrim ship to carry in lieu of, or in addition to, davits some other approved form of launching apparatus or such arrangements for launching boats as may be, in his opinion, effective.

(2) Each set of davits shall have a lifeboat of class I attached to it and at least one of the lifeboats shall be a motor boat.

(3) If the lifeboats attached to the davits do not provide:—

(a) accommodation for all the persons the ship is certified to carry,

(b) the minimum capacity specified in column D of the table in rule 37, whichever is less, additional lifeboats of Class I or Class II shall be placed on board to make up the deficiency, and the stowage of the additional boats shall be approved by the Governor-General in Council:

Provided that no ship shall be required to carry lifeboats of an aggregate capacity greater than is required to accommodate the total number of persons the ship is certified to carry on the voyage on which she is proceeding.

8. Buoyant apparatus.—If the lifeboats carried do not provide sufficient accommodation for the total number of persons which is carried or which the ship is certified to carry on the voyage on which she is proceeding, whichever number is the greater, approved buoyant apparatus shall be carried sufficient for those persons for whom accommodation is not provided in lifeboats.

9. If the master or owner of a pilgrim ship claims to carry on any voyage fewer lifeboats and approved buoyant apparatus than will provide sufficient accommodation for all the persons for which the ship is certified, he shall declare before the Principal Officer, Mercantile Marine Department, before the time of clearance, that the lifeboats and approved buoyant apparatus actually carried will be sufficient to accommodate all the persons who will be carried at any time during the voyage. If the aggregate capacity of the lifeboats which he claims to carry on the voyage is less than the minimum capacity specified in column D of the table in rule 37, the master or owner shall declare that the lifeboats alone will be sufficient to accommodate all the persons who will be carried at any time during the voyage.

10. Lifebuoys.—Every pilgrim ship shall carry lifebuoys of a type approved by the Governor-General in Council in accordance with the following scale:—

Length of ship in feet.	Minimum number of lifebuoys.
Under 200'	6, of which not less than 2 shall be provided with self-igniting lights.
200' and under 300'	8, of which not less than 4 shall be provided with self-igniting lights.
300' and under 400'	10, of which not less than 6 shall be provided with self-igniting lights.
400' and over	12, of which not less than 6 shall be provided with self-igniting lights.

11. Lifebuoy lights.—(1) Lifebuoy lights shall be self-igniting, shall be provided with a means of attachment to lifebuoys, and shall release and open automatically.

(2) Ships fitted with bridges shall carry a lifebuoy with a self-igniting light attached to it at each side of the navigating bridge in brackets or cleats in such a manner as to admit of instantaneous release and to ensure their dropping clear of the ship's side.

Other lifebuoy lights required under these rules shall be distributed, attached to lifebuoys, to the Surveyor's satisfaction.

(3) All lifebuoy lights required under these rules shall be capable of burning in water for at least 40 minutes. Lights fitted with pricklers for opening shall not be accepted.

12. Life-jackets.—One approved life-jacket shall be carried for each person on board.

13. Powers to accept alternatives.—The Governor-General in Council may, in general or in any particular case, accept any life-saving appliance or arrangement in lieu of a life-saving appliance or arrangement required by these rules subject to such conditions as he may impose.

14. Classification of lifeboats.—For the purposes of these rules lifeboats are arranged in the following classes:—

CLASS 1.

A.—Open lifeboats with internal buoyancy only.

The buoyancy of a wooden boat of this type shall be provided by watertight air-cases, the total volume of which shall be at least equal to one-tenth of the cubic capacity of the boat.

In the case of a metal boat an addition shall be made to the cubic capacity of the airtight compartments, so as to give it buoyancy equal to that of the wooden boat.

B.—Open lifeboats with internal and external buoyancy.

The internal buoyancy of a wooden boat of this type shall be provided by watertight air-cases, the total volume of which shall be at least equal to seven and a half per cent. of the cubic capacity of the boat.

If the external buoyancy is of cork, its volume, for a wooden boat, shall not be less than thirty-three thousandths of the cubic capacity of the boat; if of any material other than cork, its volume and distribution shall be such that the buoyancy and stability of the boat are not less than that of a similar boat provided with external buoyancy of cork.

In the case of a metal boat an addition shall be made to the cubic capacity of the airtight compartments, so as to give buoyancy equal to that of the wooden boat.

C.—Pontoon lifeboats having a well deck and fixed watertight bulwarks.

The area of the well deck of a boat of this type shall be at least thirty per cent. of the total deck area. The height of the well deck above the water-line at all points shall be at least equal to one-half per cent. of the length of the boat, this height rising to one and a half per cent. of the length of the boat at the ends of the well.

The freeboard of a boat of this type shall be such as to provide for a reserve buoyancy of at least thirty-five per cent.

CLASS 2.

A.—Open lifeboats having the upper part of the side collapsible.

A boat of this type shall be fitted both with watertight air-cases and with external buoyancy, the volume of which, for each person which the boat is able to accommodate, shall be at least equal to the following amounts:—

	Cubic feet.
Air-cases	1.5
External buoyancy (if of cork) ..	0.2

The minimum freeboard of boats of this type is fixed in relation to their length; it shall be measured vertically to the top of the solid hull at the side amidships from the water-level when the boat is loaded.

The freeboard in fresh water shall not be less than the following amounts:—

Length of the boat in feet.	Minimum freeboard in inches.
30	10

The freeboard of boats of intermediate lengths shall be found by interpolation.

B.—Pontoon lifeboats having a well deck and collapsible bulwarks.

All the conditions laid down for boats of Class 1C shall be applied to boats of this type, which differ from those of Class 1C only in regard to the bulwarks.

C.—Pontoon lifeboats having a flush deck and collapsible bulwarks.

The minimum freeboard of boats of this type is independent of their length and depends only upon their depth. The depth of the boat shall be measured vertically from the underside of the garboard strake to the top of the deck at the side amidships and the freeboard shall be measured from the top of the deck at the side amidships to the water-level when the boat is loaded.

The freeboard in fresh water shall not be less than the following amounts, which are applicable without correction to boats having a mean sheer equal to three per cent. of their length:—

Depth of boat in inches.	Minimum freeboard in inches.
12	2½
18	3½
24	5½
30	6½

For intermediate depths the freeboard shall be obtained by interpolation.

If the sheer is less than the standard sheer defined above, the minimum freeboard shall be obtained by adding to the figures in the table one-seventh of the difference between the standard sheer and the actual mean sheer measured at the stem and stern post; no deduction shall be made from the freeboard on account of the sheer being greater than the standard sheer or on account of the camber of the deck.

The collapsible sides or bulwarks of Class II boats shall be watertight.

15. Motor boats.—(1) A motor boat carried as part of the statutory life-saving appliances of a pilgrim ship, shall comply with the following conditions:—

- It shall comply with the requirements for a lifeboat of Class 1, and proper appliances shall be provided for putting it into the water speedily.
- It shall be adequately provided with fuel and kept so as to be at all times ready for use.
- It shall be fitted with an approved wireless telegraphy apparatus and a searchlight.
- The motor and its accessories shall be suitably enclosed to ensure operation under adverse weather conditions and provision shall be made for going astern.
- The speed shall be at least 6 knots when fully loaded in smooth water.

(2) In fixing the volume of the internal buoyancy, and, where fitted, the external buoyancy, regard shall be had to the difference between the weight of the motor and wireless telegraphy installation and their accessories and the weight of the additional persons which the boat could accommodate if these were removed.

16. Construction of lifeboats.—(1) All boats shall be properly constructed, and shall be of such form and proportion that they shall have ample stability in a seaway, and sufficient freeboard when loaded with their full complement of persons and equipment. They shall be fitted and arranged to the satisfaction of the Governor-General in Council.

(2) The structural strength of the boats shall be to the satisfaction of the Governor-General in Council. In the case of pilgrim ships, launched on or after the 1st June 1935, the strength shall be sufficient to permit of the boats being safely lowered into the water with the full complement of persons and equipment on board.

(3) Seating accommodation.—In all open boats, all thwart and side seats shall be fitted as low in the boat as practical, and shall provide seating accommodation for all persons the boat is deemed fit to carry and bottom boards shall be fitted so that the thwarts shall not be more than 2 feet 9 inches above them.

(4) Buoyancy.—Internal buoyancy apparatus shall be constructed of copper or yellow metal of not less than 18 ounces to the superficial foot, or of other durable material, and in open boats of Class 1 may be placed along the sides or at the ends of the boat, but not in the bottom of the boat. External buoyancy apparatus may be of cork or of any other equally efficient approved material: the use of rushes cork shavings, loose granulated cork, or any other loose granulated substance, and the use of apparatus dependent upon inflation by air as prohibited.

(5) Sheer.—Open lifeboats of Class 1 shall have a mean sheer at least equal to four per cent. of their length.

(6) Pontoon lifeboat.—Pontoon lifeboats may be built of wood or metal. If constructed of wood, they shall have the bottom and deck made of two thicknesses with textile material between; if of metal, they shall be divided into watertight compartments with means of access to each compartment and shall be provided with at least two bilge pumps.

(7) All pontoon lifeboats shall be fitted with efficient means for quickly clearing the deck of water. The orifices for this purpose shall be such that the water cannot enter the boat through them when they are intermittently submerged. The number and size of the orifices shall be determined by the Governor-General in Council for each type of boat by a special test.

For the purpose of this test:—

- (a) The pontoon boat shall be loaded with a weight of iron equal to that of its complement of persons and equipment.
- (b) In the case of a boat 28 feet in length, two tons of water shall be cleared from the boat in a time not exceeding the following:—

Class 1C	60 seconds.
Class 2B	60 seconds.
Class 2C	20 seconds.

In the case of a boat having a length greater or less than 28 feet the weight of water to be cleared in the same time shall be for each type directly proportional to the length of the boat.

(8) No boat shall be accepted as a lifeboat the buoyancy of which depends upon the previous adjustment of one of the principal parts of the hull.

(9) All boats shall be fitted for the use of a steering oar.

(10) Marking of lifeboats.—All boats shall be permanently marked to the satisfaction of the Governor-General in Council in such a way as to indicate plainly their dimensions and the number of persons for which they are approved. Boats that have been properly marked need not be re-measured, unless there is reason to believe that the marks have been tampered with or are otherwise defective or improper.

(11) No boat may be approved the weight of which, when fully laden with persons and equipment, exceeds 20 tons and boats certified to carry 100 persons or more shall be motor boats.

17. Number of persons.—(1) The number of persons which a lifeboat shall be deemed fit to carry shall be equal to the greatest whole number obtained by dividing the capacity of the boat in cubic feet, or the surface of the boat in square feet, as the case may be (calculated as provided by rules 18 and 19), by the standard unit of capacity, or unit of surface, defined below.

(2) The cubic capacity in net of a boat in which the number of persons is determined by the surface shall be assumed to be the ten times the number of persons which the boat is authorised to carry.

(3) The standard units of capacity and surface are as follows:—

Units of capacity.		Cubic feet.
Class 1A	..	10
Class 1B	..	9
Units of surface.		Square feet.
Class 2A	..	3½
Class 2C	..
Class 1C	..	3½
Class 2B	..

(4) The Governor-General in Council may accept a smaller divisor for pontoon boats of Class 1C and Class 2B, if he is satisfied after trial that the number of persons for whom there is seating accommodation in the boat in question is greater than the number obtained by applying the above divisor provided always that the divisor adopted in place of 3½ shall never be less than 3.

(5) The number of persons obtained by the above rules shall be reduced:—

(i) If it is greater than the number of persons for which there is proper seating accommodation, the latter number being determined in such a way that the persons when seated do not interfere in any way with the use of the oars, or

(ii) if, in the case of boats other than open boats of Class 1, the freeboard when the boat is fully loaded is less than the freeboard required by these rules.

(6) Test afloat.—If the Surveyor is doubtful as to the number of persons any boat is fit to carry he may require the boat to be tested afloat with the intended number of persons on board.

(7) The Surveyor may limit the number of persons to be allowed in boats with very fine ends and in boats very full in form.

(8) Children.—Two children under the age of twelve years may be carried in place of one adult person.

18. Cubic capacity of open boats of Class 1.—(1) In the case of an open boat of Class 1 the cubic capacity shall be determined by the following formula:—

$$\text{Capacity} = \frac{l}{12} (4A + 2B + 4C)$$

l denotes the length of the boat in feet from inside of the planking or plating at the stem to the corresponding point at the stern post; in the case of a boat with a square stern the length is measured to the inside of the transom.

A, B, C denote respectively the areas of the cross-sections at the quarter length forward amidships, and the quarter length aft, which correspond to the three points obtained by dividing l into four equal parts (the areas corresponding to the two ends of the boat are considered negligible).

The areas, A, B, C shall be deemed to be given in square feet by the successive application of the following formula to each of the three cross-sections:—

$$\text{Area} = \frac{h}{12} (a + 4b + 2c + 4d + e)$$

h denotes the depth measured in feet inside the planking or plating from the keel to the level of the gunwale, or, in certain cases, to a lower level, as determined hereafter.

a, b, c, d, e denote the horizontal breadths of the boat measured in feet to the inside of the planking at the upper and lower points of the depth and at the three points obtained by dividing h into four equal parts (a and e being the breadths at the extreme points, and c at the middle point, of h).

(2) If the sheer of the gunwale, measured at the two points situated at a quarter of the length of the boat from the ends, exceeds 1 per cent. of the length of the boat, the depth employed in calculating the area of the cross-sections A or C shall be deemed to be the depth amidships plus 1 per cent. of the length of the boat.

(3) If the depth of the boat amidships exceeds 45 per cent. of the breadth, the depth employed in calculating the area of the midship cross-section B shall be deemed to be equal to 45 per cent. of the breadth, and the depth employed in calculating the areas of the quarter length sections A and C shall be obtained by increasing this last figure by an amount equal to 1 per cent. of the length of the boat, provided that in no case shall the depths employed in the calculation exceed the actual depths at these points.

(4) If the depth of the boat is greater than 4 feet, the number of persons given by the application of these rules shall be reduced in proportion to the ratio of 4 feet to the actual depth, until the boat has been tested afloat with that number of persons on board all wearing life-jackets, and the test has proved satisfactory.

(5) The cubic capacity of a boat may be assumed to be the product of the length, the breadth and the depth multiplied by 0.6 in cases where it is clear that this formula does not give a greater capacity than that obtained by the above method. The dimensions shall then be measured in the following manner:—

Length: From the intersection of the outside of the planking with the stem to the corresponding point at the stern post or, in the case of a square sterned boat, to the after side of the transom.

Breadth: From the outside of the planking at the point where the breadth of the boat is greatest.

Depth: Amidships inside the planking from the keel to the level of the gunwale, but the depth used in calculating the cubic capacity may not in any case exceed 45 per cent. of the breadth.

In all cases the shipowner shall have the right to require that the cubic capacity of the boat shall be determined by exact measurement.

(6) If the oars are pulled in rowlocks, the bottom of the rowlocks shall be considered as the gunwale in measuring the depth of the boat.

(7) Cubic capacity of motor boats.—The cubic capacity of a motor boat shall be obtained from the gross capacity by deducting a volume equal to that occupied by the motor and wireless telegraphy installation and their accessories.

19. Deck area and capacity of pontoon boats and of open boats of Class 2.—In the case of pontoon boats and of open boats of Class 2 the surface in square feet shall be determined by the following formula:—

$$\text{Area} = \frac{l}{12} (2a + 1.5b + 4c + 1.5d + 2e)$$

l denotes the length in feet from the intersection of the outside of the planking with the stem to the corresponding point at the stern post.

a, b, c, d, e denote the horizontal breadths in feet outside the planking at the points obtained by dividing l into four equal parts and sub-dividing the foremost and aftermost parts into two equal parts (a and e being the breadths at the extreme sub-division, c at the middle point of the length and b and d at the intermediate points).

20. Size of boats.—No boat carried in compliance with these rules shall have a capacity of less than 125 cubic feet.

21. Weight of persons.—In the tests prescribed by these rules for determining the number of persons which a boat can accommodate each person shall be assumed to be an adult person wearing a life-jacket.

In verifications of freeboard the pontoon boats shall be loaded with a weight of at least 165 lbs. for each adult person that the pontoon boat is authorised to carry.

22. Appliances for lowering boats.—(1) The davits shall be of approved form and shall be suitably placed to the satisfaction of the Governor-General in Council. They shall be fitted on one or more of the decks in such positions that the boats can be efficiently lowered from them, and shall be so spaced and placed that the boats can be swung out with facility. Davits shall not be fitted in the bows of a ship, but they may be fitted in any other position in the ship, provided that the boats are not brought into dangerous proximity to a propeller at the time of launching.

(2) The davits, falls, blocks, and all other gear required for lowering the boats, shall be of sufficient strength to the satisfaction of the Governor-General in Council. In the case of pilgrim ships launched on or after the 1st June, 1935, they shall be of such strength that the boats can be lowered safely with the full complement of persons and equipment, the ship being assumed to have a list of 15 degrees.

(3) In the case of pilgrim ships launched on or after the 1st June, 1935, the davits shall be fitted with gear of sufficient power to ensure that the boats can be turned out against the maximum list under which the lowering of the boats is possible or the davits shall be of the quadrant or other such type as will ensure the above condition being fulfilled.

(4) The boat's falls shall be long enough to lower the boat into the water with safety when the vessel is light with a list of 15 degrees. Life-lines shall be fitted to the davit spans, and shall be long enough to reach the water when the vessel is light with a list of 15 degrees. Hooks shall not be attached to the lower tackle blocks.

(5) Means shall be provided for speedily, but not necessarily simultaneously or automatically, detaching the boats from the falls; the boats placed under davits shall be attached to the falls and kept ready for service; the points of attachment of the boats to the falls shall be sufficiently away from the ends of the boats to ensure their being easily swung clear of the davits; the boats' chocks shall be of such construction and arrangements as shall be satisfactory to the Governor-General in Council.

(6) Where more than one boat is served by the same set of davits, if the falls are of rope, separate falls shall be provided to serve each boat but where wire falls are used with mechanical appliances for recovering them, separate falls need not be provided.

The appliances used shall be such as to ensure lowering the boats rapidly in turn.

Where a mechanical appliance is fitted for the recovery of falls efficient hand gear shall also be provided.

(7) The Governor-General in Council may accept in lieu of davits or sets of davits any other appliance, appliances or arrangements, which appear to him at least as effective as davits for placing the boats in the water.

23. Buoyant apparatus.—Approved buoyant apparatus, whether buoyant deck seats, buoyant deck chairs or other buoyant apparatus, shall be deemed sufficient, so far as buoyancy is concerned, for a person or number of persons to be ascertained by dividing the number of pounds of iron which it is capable of supporting in fresh water by 32, and if the apparatus depends for its buoyancy on air shall not require to be inflated before use.

The number of persons to be supported shall be limited to the number of feet in the perimeter of the apparatus.

Such approved buoyant apparatus shall comply with the following conditions:—

- (1) It shall be of approved material and construction.
- (2) It shall be reversible and shall be effective and stable when floating either way up.
- (3) It shall be of such size, strength and weight that it can be handled without mechanical appliances and, if necessary, can be thrown from the vessel's deck on which it is stowed.
- (4) The air-cases or equivalent buoyancy shall be placed as near as possible to the sides of the apparatus.
- (5) It shall be marked in such a way as plainly to indicate that it is buoyant and the number of persons for which it is approved.

24. Stowing of boats, rafts, etc.—(1) All boats attached to davits and all boats stowed under boats attached to davits shall be stowed in such a way that—

- (a) they can be safely launched in the shortest possible time;
- (b) they will not impede in any way the prompt handling of any other of the lifeboats attached to davits or stowed under boats attached to davits or the buoyant apparatus carried under Rule 4 or the marshalling of the persons on board at the launching stations, or their embarkation;
- (c) even under conditions of list and trim unfavourable from the point of view of the handling of the boats as large a number of persons as possible can be embarked in them;
- (d) except as hereinafter provided, they shall be so stowed as not to require lifting before being launched and so secured that they will have the best chance of floating free from the ship in case there is no time to launch them.

(2) With regard to the stowage of other additional lifeboats and buoyant apparatus the following provisions shall apply:—

- (a) They shall not impede in any way the prompt handling of the lifeboats attached to davits or the additional boats stowed under boats attached to davits or the buoyant apparatus or the marshalling of the persons on board at the launching stations or their embarkation;
- (b) the lifeboats may be stowed one above the other, or they may, subject to such conditions as the Governor-General in Council may impose, be fitted one within another, but where boats so fitted require lifting before being launched, they shall only be permitted if attached to davits operated by mechanical power appliances;

(c) the lifeboats may be stowed in rows across a deck, bridge or poop;

(d) as large a number of the boats as possible shall be capable of being launched on either side of the ship, either by means of approved appliances for transferring them from one side of the deck to the other, or by stowing in rows across the deck, or by some other equally satisfactory means;

(e) means shall be provided to the satisfaction of the Governor-General in Council for lowering the lifeboats into the water in the shortest possible time;

(3) where a boat is stowed underneath another boat there shall be provided approved removable supports or other approved appliances so as to secure that the weight of a boat is not unduly supported by the boat underneath it;

(4) boats may only be stowed on more than one deck on condition that proper measures are taken to prevent the boats from a lower deck being fouled by those from a deck above;

(5) all buoyant apparatus shall be so stowed as to be readily available in case of emergency.

25. Equipment for boats and buoyant apparatus.—(1) Every boat which is carried by any pilgrim ship shall be equipped as follows:—

(a) With the full single banked complement of oars and two spare oars, and a steering oar.

(b) With two plugs for each plug hole, attached with lanyards or chains, and one set and a half of thole pins or crutches, attached to the boat by sound lanyards. Plugs shall not be required where proper automatic valves are fitted.

(c) With a sea anchor, a bailer, a galvanised iron bucket, a rudder and a tiller, or yoke and yoke lines, a painter of sufficient length, and a boathook. The rudder, the bailer, and the bucket shall be attached to the boat by sufficiently long lanyards, and kept ready for use.

(d) With a vessel or vessels capable of holding one quart for each person that the boat is deemed fit to carry. Each such vessel shall be kept filled with fresh water, and provided with a dipper with lanyard.

(e) With two hatches, one to be kept in each end of the boat, and to be attached to the boat by a lanyard.

(f) With a line securely becketted round the outside of the boat.

(g) With an efficient lantern trimmed, with oil in its receiver sufficient to burn eight hours; or with some other lantern or light at least as effective, approved by the Governor-General in Council.

(2) In addition to the equipment prescribed in sub-rule (1), the boats shall be equipped with:—

(a) A mast or masts, and at least one good sail and proper gear for each; but this does not apply to an approved motor boat.

(b) An efficient compass.

(c) An airtight case containing two pounds of biscuits for each person for whom the boat is approved.

(d) One gallon of vegetable or animal oil, and a vessel of approved pattern for distributing it on the water in rough weather. This vessel shall be capable of being attached to the sea anchor.

(e) One dozen self-igniting red lights in a watertight tin, and a box of suitable matches in a watertight tin.

(f) 1 lb. of condensed milk for each person the boat is certified to carry.

(3) All buoyant apparatus carried by a pilgrim ship shall be equipped as follows:—

(a) With two paddles and one boathook or two paddles and boathooks combined attached to the buoyant apparatus by lanyards.

(b) A painter of sufficient length.

(c) A line securely becketted round the outside of the apparatus.

(d) A self-igniting light and two signal flares of approved pattern, the self-igniting light to be attached to the buoyant apparatus by lanyards of suitable length:

Provided that on buoyant apparatus, designed to support less than twenty-five persons the paddles, boathook, light and flares need not be carried.

(4) All boats and buoyant apparatus shall be fully equipped before the ship leaves harbour and the equipment shall remain in the boat or buoyant apparatus throughout the voyage while the ship is at sea or shall be stowed in some convenient place where it will be immediately available in case of emergency.

(5) A motor boat need not carry a mast or sail or more than half the complement of oars but shall be provided with two boathooks.

26. Side ladders.—In every pilgrim ship approved rope ladders shall be provided at each set of davits.

Such ladders shall be of sufficient length to reach the waterline at the vessel's lightest sea going draft allowing for a list of 15 degrees and shall be carried in such a manner as to be always available for use in embarking the persons in the boats.

27. Illumination.—On all pilgrim ships in which the boat deck is more than 30 feet above the water, provision shall be made for the illumination from the ship of the lifeboats when alongside and in process of or immediately after being launched.

28. Life-jackets.—An approved life-jacket shall mean a jacket of approved material and construction, which is capable of floating in fresh water for 24 hours with 16½ lbs. of iron suspended from it, or any other approved appliance of equal buoyancy and capable of being fitted on the body. It shall be reversible and suitable both for adults and children. Life-jackets the buoyancy of which depends on air compartments are prohibited.

29. Lifebuoys.—(1) (a) An approved life-buoy shall be of solid cork or other equivalent material. It shall be capable of floating in fresh water for at least 24 hours with 32 lbs. of iron suspended from it.

(b) Lifebuoys filled with rushes, cork shavings, granulated cork or any other loose granulated material, or whose buoyancy depends upon air compartments requiring inflation, are prohibited.

(2) All lifebuoys shall be fitted with becketts securely seized, and at least one on each side of the ship shall be fitted with a life-line at least 15 fathoms in length.

30. Position of lifebuoys and life-jackets.—All lifebuoys and life-jackets shall be suitably placed to the satisfaction of the Surveyor and so as to be readily accessible to all persons on board and their position shall be plainly indicated so that it may be known to those for whom they are intended.

Lifebuoys shall always be capable of being rapidly cast loose and shall not be rigidly secured in any way.

Life-jackets may be stored either in battens over the passenger decks or in boxes under the charge of serangs as well as in the buoyant seats when these are used. The contents of the boxes shall be clearly painted on them and illustrated notices in the vernacular shall be posted up in different parts of the ship explaining to passengers where to find life-jackets and how to use them. In addition, their use shall be demonstrated by the crew both during boat drills and periodically at other times.

31. Exemptions.—(1) Any lifeboat which forms part of the equipment of a pilgrim ship that was launched before the 1st June 1933 and which has been inspected and approved by the Governor-General in Council before that date, may be accepted as equivalent to a lifeboat so long as it remains in good condition.

(2) Lifeboats which were ordered before the 1st June 1933 in order to complete the equipment of a ship, but which were not delivered in time to be inspected by the Governor-General in Council before that date, may be accepted as equivalent to lifeboats so long as they remain in good condition:

Provided that such lifeboats shall not be so accepted, unless—

- (a) they have been inspected, where this has not already been done;
- (b) they would have complied with the requirements of the rules in force prior to the 1st June 1933.

32. (1) When it appears to the Governor-General in Council, on the application of the owner of a pilgrim ship carrying more than 12 berthed passengers, that it is not practicable or reasonable to fit in that ship the number of sets of davits required by these rules, he may authorise under exceptional circumstances a smaller number of sets of davits provided that the number carried shall not be less than the minimum fixed in column B of the table in rule 40 and that the capacity of the life-boats carried is at least up to the minimum capacity specified in column D of the table.

The owner of such a ship shall be required to satisfy the Surveyor by a practical test in his presence that all the boats carried can be launched in reasonable time, the number of hands employed in the operation not exceeding the total number of boat hands that will be carried on board under normal service conditions and each boat having, when lowered, at least two men on board and its full equipment.

(2) If it appears to the Governor-General in Council, on the application of the owner of any pilgrim ship that it is not practicable or reasonable in a particular case to require that pontoon lifeboats, made before the 1st June, 1935, and carried on ships of which the keels were laid on or before that date, shall have the minimum freeboard specified in these rules or the bottom and deck made in two thicknesses with textile material between, the Governor-General in Council may in his discretion dispense with full compliance with the rules in these respects subject to such conditions, if any, as the Governor-General in Council may impose.

33. Drill.—(1) In all ships to which these rules apply, a boat drill and a watertight door drill shall be held as soon as possible after leaving the original port of departure and thereafter once a week during the voyage when practicable, at which a number of the male passengers (e.g., the single men) when this is practicable shall be mustered apart from the others in a convenient place whence they can be readily requisitioned to assist in swinging out boats or rounding up falls, etc., if required. Such drills shall be recorded in the official log book.

(2) The Surveyor shall be satisfied, in each case before the ship leaves port, that a return has been devised and communicated to each officer of the ship for securing an efficient working of the boats. In all cases a police system shall be organised to the satisfaction of the Surveyor so as to secure obedience to orders and proper control and guidance of all on board in times of emergency.

(3) In carrying out the boat and watertight door drills the crew will, when practicable, drill in their life-jackets and arrangements shall be made, when possible, for passengers to see the crew putting their life-jackets on. Entries in the official log book shall state whether and when this has been done.

34. Emergency boat.—In all pilgrim ships which are required under these rules to carry two or more boats, an emergency boat shall be carried slung out and ready for action whilst the ship is at sea.

35. Boat-decks.—Special boat-decks shall be kept entirely clear of passengers, and in the case of shade-decks, bridge-decks and poop-decks, which are utilized for carrying passengers as well as boats, a space sufficient for the working of the boats shall be railed off; and where boats stowed on a shade, bridge or poop-deck occupy half or more of the total breadth of the deck, the whole of the space abreast the boats shall be railed off and treated as a special boat-deck.

36. Stowage.—The stowage of boats and buoyant apparatus in any pilgrim ship shall not be passed by the Surveyor as complying with these rules unless he is satisfied that every part of the life saving equipment is readily available.

37. Sets of davits and aggregate capacity of lifeboats.—The following table fixes* according to the length of ship the minimum number of sets of davits to be provided in pilgrim ships and the minimum aggregate capacity of the lifeboats carried on board in accordance with these rules:—

*NOTE.—The number of sets of davits and the boat capacities of ships not provided for in the Table shall be prescribed by the Governor-General in Council.

38. Notwithstanding anything contained in rules 7 to 37, when a ship has at any time before the 1st June, 1933, obtained certificate A in the form required under section 154, for a pilgrim ship, the arrangements on such ship shall be considered by the Governor-General in Council on the first occasion after the 1st June, 1933, on which application is made for another such certificate and the Governor-General in Council shall thereupon require such improvements, if any, as are in his opinion practicable and reasonable to be made not later than the first day of June, 1935, and, subject to the making of the said improvements by the said date, the ship shall be exempt from any of the provisions of these rules which would necessitate the making of improvements in excess of those which the Governor-General in Council has required to be made.

Instruments for purposes of navigation.

39. Every pilgrim ship shall be provided with—

- not less than three good ship's compasses and with a record of the deviation of her compasses on every point, entered in the log-book;
- Admiralty or Indian Government charts and sailing directions suitable for the voyage she is about to undertake;
- not less than two chronometers and not less than two sextants or quadrants and barometers, one of the latter being a mercurial barometer;
- a deep-sea leadline and lead.

Fire extinguishing appliances.

40. Spaces occupied by passengers and crew.—(1) On every ship of more than 4,000 tons gross tonnage, at least three, and on every other ship at least two, steam or equivalent pumps shall be available for the spaces occupied by passengers and crew: provided that more than two pumps shall not be required on ships whose keels were laid before the 1st September 1931. Each such pump shall be capable of providing a full supply of water, in accordance with the requirements specified in sub-rule (1) of rule 43, to one or more ranges of water service pipes. The service pipes shall be of metal, with branches so arranged that the fire hoses may be coupled thereto, and two powerful jets of water may be rapidly and simultaneously brought to bear, by means of single lengths of hose from each branch, upon any part of each deck space occupied by passengers or crew, when the watertight and fire doors are closed. Where the water service is on an exposed deck, the branches necessary to comply with the foregoing requirements shall, in the case of vessels whose keels are laid after the 1st September 1931, be fitted on both sides of the deck.

Provided that in the case of vessels whose keels were laid before the 1st September 1931, the main engine sanitary pump shall be allowed to count as one of the pumps required to be available if it is so fitted as to be capable of serving the purpose of such pump.

(2) Every ship shall carry an efficient portable hand pump with suction and hose complete.

(3) Portable chemical fire extinguishers of an approved pattern shall be carried in every compartment wherein passengers and crew are accommodated. There shall be two extinguishers in each such compartment, and when passengers are carried in enclosed spaces above the upper-deck, there shall be at least one extinguisher on each side of such spaces at intervals of not more than 60 feet.

41. Cargo spaces.—On every ship arrangements shall be made whereby two powerful jets of water may be rapidly and simultaneously directed into any cargo compartment, and, save in the case of a ship of less than 1,000 tons gross tonnage, satisfactory means shall also be provided whereby steam or other gas incapable of supporting combustion may be conveyed to each such compartment.

42. Machinery and bunker spaces.—(1) Arrangements shall be made in ships which use coal as fuel whereby two powerful jets of water can be rapidly and simultaneously directed into any part of the coal bunker spaces, boiler rooms and machinery spaces.

(2) In ships in which the main boilers are oil fired the following additional arrangements shall be made:—

(a) The fire hoses in the machinery spaces shall be provided with additional conductors suitable for spraying water on oil without undue disturbance of the surface.

(b) In each firing space there shall be placed a receptacle containing 10 cubic feet of sand, sawdust impregnated with soda, or other approved dry material; and scoops for distributing the same.

(c) In each boiler room, and in each of the machinery spaces in which a part of the oil fuel installation is situated, there shall be provided two approved portable chemical extinguishers of a type discharging froth or other approved medium suitable for quenching oil fires.

(d) Means shall be provided whereby froth may be rapidly discharged and distributed over the whole of the lower parts of any boiler room or of any machinery space in which oil fuel units or settling tanks may be situated. The quantity of froth which can be discharged should be amply sufficient to cover up to a depth of 6 inches the whole area of the plating formed in any one compartment by the inner bottom plating, or by the shell plating of the vessel if there is no double bottom tank. If the engine and boiler rooms are not entirely separate, and fuel oil can drain from the boiler room bilges into the engine room, the combined engine and boiler rooms shall be treated as one compartment. Provided that if other effective means are available for combating fire and the apparatus can be controlled from outside the compartment in which fire may occur, the Governor-General in Council may exempt from the requirements of this clause ships whose keels were laid before the 1st September 1931 on which it would not be reasonable to require the fitting of large froth installations.

(e) There shall further be provided one extinguisher of at least 30 gallons capacity in ships having one boiler room, and two such extinguishers in ships with more than one boiler room. These extinguishers shall be provided with hoses on reels suitable for reaching any part of the boiler rooms and spaces containing oil fuel pumping units: Provided that the Governor-General in Council may permit the fitting of any other equally efficient apparatus in place of the 30 gallons extinguisher.

(f) All containers and valves by which they are operated shall be easily accessible and so placed that they will not readily be cut off from use in case of fire.

43. Pumps.—(1) In all ships each of the steam or equivalent pumps shall be capable of supplying simultaneously two powerful jets of water for use in any part of the vessel. The pumps shall be worked by steam or by some other equally efficient motive power, and shall always be available for immediate use at all reasonable times when the vessel is in commission.

(2) All steam or equivalent pumps shall be provided with effective escape valves suitably adjusted and so placed as to prevent excessive pressure in any part of the water service system.

44. Water service pipes.—The main water service pipes shall be made of wrought material, and, if of iron or steel, shall, in the case of vessels whose keels are laid after the 1st September 1931, be galvanised. They shall be sufficiently large in diameter for the adequate supply of water to the fire hoses which shall be secured to them for simultaneous operation. The branches shall be so placed that the fire hoses may be conveniently coupled to them, and cocks or valves shall be fitted where required to admit of any hose being removed, if desired, while the pumps are at work.

45. Fire hoses.—(1) The fire hoses shall be of leather, seamless hemp, flax canvas of first-class quality, or other approved material. They shall be provided with suitable metal unions and conductors, and with gooseneck connections where necessary.

(2) A sufficient number of fire hoses with attachments and conductors shall be suitably distributed about different decks in the ship so as to be readily available for rapid use in any space occupied by passengers or crew, and not less than three hoses and attachments shall be provided in any vessel.

(3) The fire hoses and the conductors, and other apparatus referred to in sub-rules (1) and (2), together with coupling wrenches if required, shall be kept ready for use in conspicuous positions near the water service hydrants or connections. They shall be used only for the purposes of extinguishing fires or for testing the fire extinguishing apparatus at fire drills and surveys, and not for washing decks.

46. Arrangements for injecting steam or other gas into cargo spaces and boiler rooms.—Where provision is made for the injection of steam or other gas into the cargo spaces and boiler rooms for fire extinguishing purposes the necessary pipes for conveying the steam or gas to holds or other compartments shall be provided with controlling valves or cocks readily accessible from the deck and so marked as to indicate clearly the compartments to which the pipes are respectively led. Suitable provision shall be made for locking these valves or cocks so as to prevent inadvertent admission of the steam or gas to any compartment. If any pipe is led to a space to which passengers have access, it shall be furnished with an additional stop valve or cock also capable of being locked. Provided that the Governor-General in Council may permit the substitution of any other equally efficient safety device giving the requisite security from danger.

47. Fluid fire extinguishers.—(1) A sufficient number of approved portable fluid fire extinguishers discharging water shall be provided in accordance with the requirements of rules 40 and 42. For ordinary purposes not specifically referred to in these rules, the capacity of portable extinguishers shall be not more than three imperial gallons, and not less than two imperial gallons, provided the Governor-General in Council may, in his discretion, permit the use of an extinguisher of less than two gallons capacity in special circumstances.

(2) An approved type of portable extinguisher discharging a medium other than water may in the case of not more than 20 per cent. of the total number of extinguishers required to be carried be substituted for the ordinary water-discharging extinguisher.

(3) The portable hand fluid fire extinguishers (apart from those supplied in boiler rooms, etc., specially for use in connection with oil fuel) shall not be of more than two types in any one ship.

(4) All extinguishers, whether portable or otherwise, shall be placed in positions where they are readily accessible.

48. Smoke helmets and safety lamps.—At least two smoke helmets and two safety lamps of approved types shall be included in the fire extinguishing equipment of every vessel and the helmets shall be stowed separately. The members of the crew shall be practised regularly in their use.

49. Emergency appliances.—The necessary emergency fire appliances such as knives, axes, and crowbars, shall be kept in a place readily accessible at all times from different parts of the ship.

50. Fire drill.—Fire drill shall be observed at least once a week on board all vessels and during such drill all fire appliances shall be put into use and the fact entered in the log book. The great utility of wooden or asbestos blankets for smothering small fires shall always be impressed on all persons taking part in a fire drill.

51. Custody of fire apparatus and fire patrol.—(1) The fire apparatus shall be placed by the master under the special charge of one of the principal officers of the ship and of the ship's carpenter, who shall both be held responsible that the apparatus is kept in a state fit for immediate use. As soon as possible after leaving port, the officers and crew shall be divided into parties and assigned to stations in case of fire.

(2) A continuous patrol system shall be organised so that any outbreak of fire may be promptly detected.

52. Stowage of cargo and disposal of inflammables.—(1) The cargo of every ship shall, before she leaves port, be properly stowed away, and the decks shall be cleared of any loose straw, hay and other inflammable material. Any goods which are dangerous by reason of their inflammability or liability to explosion shall be stowed, subject to the provisions of any law or rules in force, in such manner as to safeguard the ship from danger of fire or explosion. The tanks of motor cars carried on the ship shall be drained before loading.

(2) Before a ship leaves port, every passenger shall deliver up any lucifer matches, gun-powder or other inflammable article in his possession.

53. Use of naked lights and spirits.—Naked lights shall not be used in the holds or store rooms or between decks, except under trustworthy superintendence. No person shall read in bed with a naked light. Casks or drums containing spirit shall not be opened in the hold but shall be hoisted on deck for the purpose.

54. Relaxation of rules.—In the case of a small vessel under 200 feet in length when it is shown to be unreasonable to require full compliance with any of the provisions of these rules, such relaxation shall be granted as the Governor-General in Council may, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, direct.

Means for making signals of distress.

55. Signals of distress.—Any of the following commonly recognised night signals of distress may be used either together or separately:—

(1) A gun or other explosive signal fired at intervals of about a minute.

(2) Flames on the vessel (as from a burning tar or oil barrel).

(3) Rockets or shells, throwing stars of any colour or description, fired one at a time at short intervals.

(4) A continuous sounding with any fog signal apparatus.

(5) The international distress signal made by radiotelegraphy or radiotelephony or by any other distance signalling method.

56. Means of making signals of distress to be provided.—All ships shall be provided with the means of making signals of distress at night specified in rules 57 to 59 or, in lieu thereof, with such other means of making signals of distress as have been previously approved.

57. Gun.—(1) One gun at least $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches in the bore, or one mortar at least $5\frac{1}{2}$ inches in the bore, shall be carried on all ships, with 24 charges of ammunition in the case of foreign-going ships, and 12 charges in the case of home-trade ships.

(2) Each charge shall contain 16 ozs. of powder in a flannel bag. The necessary requisites for firing the gun, namely, rammers, sponges, wads, priming wires, friction tubes, powder flask, with fine powder for priming and means for firing and withdrawing the charges, shall also be provided.

(3) Approved socket distress signals and sound signal rockets may be carried in lieu of a gun, provided that the number of signals so carried shall be equal to the number of charges of ammunition required under sub-rule (1).

58. Deck flares.—Two deck flares, self-igniting in water, shall be provided in every ship. Such deck flares shall be capable of burning brightly for at least 40 minutes. Full instructions for use shall be attached to each flare, and suitable receptacles for containing the water required for their combustion shall be provided, efficient means being adopted for ensuring free flow of water to the bottom of the light.

59. Rockets and socket signals.—(1) Twelve rockets or shells, throwing stars of any colour or description, shall be supplied, each rocket containing 16 ozs. of composition.

(2) Approved socket distress signals may be supplied in lieu of rockets, provided that the number of signals so supplied shall be equal to the number of rockets required under sub-rule (1). If socket signals are also carried in lieu of a gun and charges of ammunition, the number shall be equal to the total number of charges of ammunition and of rockets required under sub-rule (1) of rule 57 and sub-rule (1) of this rule. Socket signals shall be fired only from the sockets supplied by the makers of the signals.

(3) The socket used for firing the socket signals shall in all cases be fixed at an angle which shall approximate as closely as possible to, but shall not be less than, 20 degrees from the perpendicular, so as to obviate the risk of a signal falling on the vessel's deck if it fails to rise to the usual height. The sockets shall be of sufficient strength, and of such a gauge as to ensure that the signal will rise to a safe height before exploding.

(4) In all cases where socket signals are carried there shall be at least two sockets, one forward and one aft, on opposite sides of the vessel.

60. Testing and renewal of signals.—All pyrotechnic signals shall be clearly and permanently marked or stamped with the date of manufacture. Adhesive labels or painted figures alone shall not be accepted in lieu of such marking or stamping. Where sheet brass labels are used in contact with tin cases, the brass plates shall be properly soldered on and there shall be no corrosion of the canister.

61. Stowage of signals and combustibles.—(1) A separate, detached, and completely enclosed receptacle shall be provided for each of the following kinds of explosives:—

- (1) gun powder or cartridges made therewith;
- (2) rockets;
- (3) socket signals;
- (4) deck flares and lifebuoy lights;
- (5) any other description of pyrotechnic signals.

(2) Such separate receptacles shall not be made merely by divisions or partitions in a cupboard or locker or chest, but each such receptacle shall be a separate magazine, exclusively appropriated to the keeping of explosives of the kind in question. Charges of powder, if carried, shall be contained in flannel bags, and the magazine in which they are kept shall be made of copper and strongly constructed. To prevent injury to the rockets and other signals, the receptacles shall either be internally divided in such a way that the signals can be stowed vertically, or they shall be of roughly the same length as the signals, but sufficiently narrow to prevent the signals being turned round. The lids shall be secured by hinges or brass screws so as to permit of an inspection being made without injury to the case. The receptacles shall, where possible, be kept in a house on deck, and stowed or ranged as far apart as circumstances will permit, so that in the event of spontaneous combustion, or of risk of any sort arising any of the cases may be at once removed. Where the socket signals are supplied by the manufacturer in wooden boxes with a tin box inside containing the friction tubes, no other receptacle shall be required for the latter.

(3) No article of an explosive or highly inflammable character shall be carried in any room or place in which any receptacle containing distress signals is deposited.

62. In the case of a small vessel under 200 feet in length when it is shown to be unreasonable to require full compliance with any of the provisions of these rules, such relaxation shall be granted as the Governor-General in Council may, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, direct.

Fittings and other appliances to be provided on the upper deck and in between-decks.

63. (1) The Inspector shall see that sufficient ventilators are provided for the between-decks to give each pilgrim (a) in the upper between-deck 5 square inches, and (b) in the lower between-deck 10 square inches of ventilation area exclusive of hatches and side scuttles, and that the ventilators are so placed as to afford on equable diffusion of air through all parts. The ventilators of the lower between-deck must act separately from those of the upper between-deck and, if pilgrims are carried on a deck below the lower between-deck, such lower between-deck, shall be ventilated by an approved mechanical system. Mechanical ventilation may be accepted in place of natural ventilation, but in all cases where it is proposed to fit mechanical ventilation, full details of the arrangement with drawings shall be submitted for the approval of the Governor-General in Council.

(2) No pilgrim shall be accommodated on any deck lower than the first between-deck which is below the water-line.

64. Such provision shall be made for affording light to the between-decks by means of side scuttles as the circumstances of the case may, in the judgment of the Inspector, require. The pilgrims shall have the free and unimpeded use of the whole of every hatchway situated over the space appropriated to their use, and over each hatchway there shall be erected such a hooly hatch or other substantial covering as shall, in the opinion of the Inspector, afford the greatest obtainable amount of light and air and of protection from sun and wet.

65. (1) Every pilgrim ship shall be lighted with efficient lighting by electricity to the satisfaction of the Inspector and shall carry at least six electric torches of a pattern approved by the Inspector to be utilised under the orders of the master of the ship for the purpose of providing illumination in the compartments occupied by pilgrims in the event of a failure of the main lighting arrangements.

(2) In every new ship there shall be two electric generators one of which shall be situated above the bulkhead deck.

(3) For the purposes of sub-rule (2) a new ship means a ship whose keel is laid after the expiry of two years from the date on which these rules come into force or which has not been certified to carry pilgrims during a period of two years prior to that date.

66. Efficient wind-scoops shall be provided for at least 25 per cent. of the opening scuttles on decks on which pilgrims are accommodated, at least two being provided in each separate compartment, and they shall be placed in position whenever weather conditions permit.

67. The number of pilgrims to be accommodated in any separate compartment shall be conspicuously marked on the bulkheads of such compartment in English and Urdu characters in the case of a ship sailing from Bombay or Karachi and in English and Bengali characters in the case of a ship sailing from Calcutta.

68. The space to be occupied by pilgrims in any compartment shall be clearly demarcated by lines so as to divide it into small blocks capable of accommodating in accordance with the requirements of sub-section (1) of section 193 or of any order issued by the Governor-General in Council under the said sub-section, pilgrims in batches of 5, 8, 10, 12 or other numbers not exceeding 12. The number of pilgrims which every such block is capable of accommodating shall be marked in that block in English and Urdu in the case of a ship sailing from Bombay or Karachi and in English and Bengali in the case of a ship sailing from Calcutta.

69. On the upper deck as well as in every compartment in the between-decks to be occupied by pilgrims, there shall be provided an alley-way at least $1\frac{1}{2}$ feet in width. Every such alley-way shall be clearly demarcated by lines.

70. In every compartment allocated for the accommodation of pilgrims and occupying the full breadth of the ship there shall be fitted along the ships side sleeping boards for the use of the pilgrims of sufficient strength to the satisfaction of the Inspector.

The sleeping boards shall be so arranged as to provide, so far as practicable, a continuous shelf 6 feet in width along the ship's side at a height of 3 feet 6 inches above the deck. The boards may be made in convenient sizes, and may be portable and capable of being folded against the ship's side or of being removed when not required for the use of pilgrims.

71. The upper-deck of every pilgrim ship shall be either of wood, or of iron or steel sheathed with wood and caulked.

72. Each hatchway (a) shall be provided with a large tarpaulin tent which shall in bad weather be spread well over the hatchway and securely fastened so as to keep out rain and let in fresh air, and in fine weather shall be rolled up and put out of the way; and (b) except where arrangements exist for lowering the derrick boom in a way which will serve the purpose, shall also be fitted with a strong iron or wooden A-shaped frame for the support of such tent.

73. Every pilgrim ship shall have poop, quarter deck, waist and fore-castle awnings complete and in good order, and six windsails distributed as the Inspector may direct. The awning and windsails shall be kept up so long as the weather does not render this impossible.

74. Strong ladders $2\frac{1}{2}$ feet wide with hand rails of a convenient height shall be provided for every hatchway used as such and not merely as a ventilator; and, as additional means of support for women and children, knotted handropes shall be fastened conveniently near the ladders.

75. The space to be occupied by pilgrims shall be kept clear from obstruction of any kind whatever and thoroughly clean and dry; nothing shall be slung up or stowed away between the beams. Every day while the pilgrims are on deck the between-decks shall be carefully cleaned and scrubbed with dry sand mixed with suitable disinfectants.*

*Calvert's powder in the proportion of 10 per cent. should be used.

76. Bamboos, ropes or strong rails shall be securely fastened fore and aft to the midship stanchions on the between-deck.

77. No timber or cargo of any kind, and only the necessary fittings properly secured and live-stock for consumption on the voyage, shall be allowed on the upper-deck; which shall, save as aforesaid, be exclusively reserved for the pilgrims.†

78. No structural alteration such as the erection of deck-houses for the accommodation of pilgrims or the cutting of decks or side-plates for ventilators, side scuttles, etc., shall be effected in any pilgrim ship unless it is carried out with the previous permission and to the satisfaction of the Surveyor. When any such alterations, have not been carried out and approved by the Surveyor at the time of the survey of the vessel under Part III of the Act, a certificate from a Principal Officer of the Mercantile Marine Department that the alterations have been made with the permission and approval of the Surveyor shall be produced for the inspection of the Inspector.

82. Cooking on board in pilgrims' private stoves or agrees shall be strictly forbidden.

83. All cooks and attendants employed on board a ship for cooking and serving the pilgrims' food shall be Muslims. The number of such cooks and attendants shall be such as the Inspector may consider necessary.

84. (1) All articles of food supplied to pilgrims shall be of good quality.

(2) No articles which may be objectionable according to Islamic Shariat shall be used in the preparation of food to be supplied to pilgrims.

85. Every pilgrim shall provide his own plates, cups and other receptacles in which food may be served to him during the voyage.

86. In the case of pilgrims travelling by the lowest class available on the ship, the food to be supplied to them under sub-rule (2) or sub-rule (3) of rule 79 shall be distributed at such hatches or other places and subject to such arrangements, as the Inspector may consider suitable.

87. Articles of food to be made available to pilgrims under rule 80 shall be kept for sale at a place approved by the Inspector and marked with a signboard written in bold letters in English and Urdu in the case of a ship sailing from Bombay or Karachi and in English and Bengali in the case of a ship sailing from Calcutta announcing that articles of food can be procured there on payment. At the same place shall also be posted—

(i) a table in English and Urdu in the case of a ship sailing from Bombay or Karachi and in English and Bengali in the case of a ship sailing from Calcutta showing the articles of food which a pilgrim is entitled to get daily during the voyage under sub-rule (2) or sub-rule (3) of rule 79; and

88. (1) Every pilgrim ship shall have on board supplies sufficient, in the opinion of the Inspector, to ensure compliance with sub-rules (2) and (3) of rule 79 and rule 80 during the voyage.

(2) Every pilgrim ship shall, in addition to the supplies required under sub-rule (1), have on board, either as cargo or stores, food sufficient, in the opinion of the Inspector, to provide for the pilgrims in the event of an accident to the ship's machinery.

89. Each ship shall be fitted with a condenser or distilling apparatus of sufficient capacity to produce at least one and a half gallons of drinking-water a day for every person on board of whatever age, including the crew.

90. No certificate under section 155 shall be granted unless the condenser can not only supply the minimum quantity of water prescribed under rule 89 for each person on board, but also yield every 24 hours 500 gallons of pure, cold water fit to drink.

91. The tanks for storing drinking-water on board shall not be placed near the latrines. They shall be protected from all filth, and shall be so closed that the distribution of the water can be effected only by means of "waste-not" taps fitted to the tanks. Such taps shall be in the proportion of 1 per 250 pilgrims or fraction of that number in excess of 250. Pilgrims shall be allowed to take water from the taps at all times between the hours of 5 a.m. and 9 p.m. provided that the master of the ship if, at any time after the end of three days from the commencement of a voyage, he is satisfied that the quantity of water taken by the pilgrims is in excess of 2 gallons per day per pilgrim, may restrict the supply to four periods of two hours each as stated below, namely:—

- (i) 5 a.m. to 7 a.m.,
- (ii) 12 noon to 2 p.m.,
- (iii) 4 p.m. to 6 p.m., and
- (iv) 8 p.m. to 10 p.m.

92. The water of any tank pronounced bad by the medical officer of the ship shall be immediately rejected and pumped out and the tank shall be cleaned out and disinfected before being re-filled.

93. If there is any doubt as to the quality of the drinking-water stored, or as to the possibility of its pollution, either at its source or in the course of the voyage, it shall be well boiled; and it shall be thrown into the sea as soon as it is possible to obtain a purer supply.

94. Every condenser or distilling apparatus shall have a separate engine for working the circulating cold-water pump, and under no circumstances shall this engine be used for any other purpose than that of feeding the boiler of the condenser.

95. The arrangements for discharging the circulating water from the condenser shall be such that it can be delivered into buckets or connected with a hose for the purpose of washing decks, or extinguishing fire, as well as discharging over the ship's side. A suitable hose and connection shall also be provided.

96. Either upright or horizontal boilers may be used for condensers. Each boiler shall be furnished with a steam-gauge indexed to double the working pressure, a glass water-gauge and two separate gauge cocks, one safety-valve and two mud-hole doors for the purposes of cleaning.

97. The boilers and all machinery connected with condensers shall be properly covered in, and every wooden bulkhead in the vicinity of the boilers or condensers shall be covered with sheet lead weighing $4\frac{1}{2}$ lbs. per square foot and securely fastened to such bulkhead.

98. All the piping in connection with the condenser, especially the main suction and the condensed water discharge-pipe, unless laid in such a position that no accident can occur, shall be securely encased.

99. The Inspector shall satisfy himself by actual experiment that the condenser is capable of performing the work required of it.

100. The Chief Engineer or some other competent person, to be approved by the Inspector, shall be appointed to have charge of the distilling apparatus and machinery connected therewith during the voyage.

Cargo.

101. (1) No petroleum as defined in the Indian Petroleum Act, 1899 (VIII of 1899), (except such petroleum as is necessary for use as fuel for the ship during the voyage and the return voyage to India), or explosive as described in the Indian Explosives Act, 1884 (IV of 1884), nor any inflammable oils, spirits, jute, cotton, or coal (except such coal as is required for the voyage and the return voyage to India), nor any commodity likely, by reason of its quantity, quality or mode of stowage, to be prejudicial to the safety of the pilgrims, shall be carried on board any pilgrim ship.

(2) Where petroleum is carried in bulk for use as fuel for any pilgrim ship—

It shall have a flash point of not less than 150° Fahrenheit by Abel's close test and shall be carried in cellular double bottoms under engine and boiler compartments, or under ordinary holds or in peak tanks, deep tanks or bunkers of approved construction:

Provided that the oil fuel storage tanks and installations in connection therewith fully comply with the conditions described in the Instructions to Surveyors, contained in the Board of Trade Circular No. 1647 (Oil Fuel Installation in Passenger Steamship), dated January 1924.

With each supply of oil taken on board a written guarantee shall be supplied by the vendor, and signed by a responsible official in his employ, of the actual close test flash point, the type of instrument by which the test was made being in every case specified. These particulars shall be entered in the engine room log.

102. No pilgrim ship calling at Aden for the embarkation or disembarkation of pilgrims or for the loading or discharge of cargo shall be delayed at that port on account of the embarkation or disembarkation of pilgrims or the loading or discharge of cargo for a period exceeding 12 hours.

103. No pilgrim ship carrying pilgrims from any port in British India and calling at any other port in British India except Aden, en route to the Hedjaz, for the embarkation or disembarkation of pilgrims or for the loading or discharge of cargo shall be delayed at the port of call, on account of the embarkation or disembarkation of pilgrims or the loading or discharge of cargo, for a period exceeding forty-eight hours.

Allotment of upper deck space.

104. No cabin shall be provided for any pilgrim on the upper-deck unless space remains unallotted on that deck after providing the accommodation required for the permanent and temporary hospitals, latrines, and six superficial feet of airing space for every pilgrim on board. Such space as remains unallotted after making provision for these requirements may be reserved for the accommodation of pilgrims in cabins containing not less than 16 superficial and 96 cubic feet of space per pilgrim. No pilgrim shall be furnished with reserved accommodation on the upper-deck except in a cabin.

105. The airing space on the upper-deck may be distributed among pilgrims of different classes in such manner as the master or owner may desire: Provided that the airing space allotted to any particular class of pilgrims shall be sufficient to provide at least six superficial feet of such space for every pilgrim of that class.

Amount and distribution of baggage.

106. (1) Pilgrims' heavy baggage shall be registered and numbered and deposited in the hold before the ship leaves her moorings.

(2) Pilgrims shall be allowed to keep with them only such articles as are absolutely necessary and the articles so kept shall not exceed one maund (82 lbs.) in weight per pilgrim.

(3) If a pilgrim so desires, the master shall arrange for the safe custody of the pilgrim's valuables, except those of a bulky nature, during the voyage. A receipt shall be given to the pilgrim for the articles so received for safe custody and on presentation of the receipt the articles shall be returned to the pilgrim.

Hospital accommodation, medical stores, and arrangements for maintaining health, cleanliness and decency.

107. (1) The hospital accommodation required under section 195 shall be provided where convenient. A permanent hospital shall be provided for not less than 3 per cent. of the pilgrims on board containing not less than six bunks, and having a deck area of at least 32 superficial feet and dimensions of not less than 192 cubic feet per head. On every pilgrim ship on which there are 50 or more female pilgrims, there shall be a separate permanent hospital, containing not less than two bunks with a deck area of at least 72 superficial feet and dimensions of not less than 432 cubic feet, which shall be reserved for the use of women and of children under 12 years of age. The hospitals shall be lighted and ventilated to the satisfaction of the Inspector and shall be provided with raised floors or platforms at least 4 inches off the deck when situated on an iron deck. If on deck they shall be made as secure as any other deck-house, and the roof shall be well caulked and covered with painted canvas.* No case of small-pox, cholera, yellow fever or plague shall on any account be treated in a permanent hospital. Permanent hospitals shall be used solely for the accommodation of sick pilgrims, and in so far as they are not required for the accommodation of such pilgrims, shall remain unoccupied.

(2) Every pilgrim ship shall be provided with mattresses, blankets, pillows and bed sheets in the proportion of one mattress, one blanket, one pillow and two bed-sheets for every 50 pilgrims. These articles shall as a rule be used only for non-infectious cases, and in the event of their being used at any time for infectious cases, they shall be destroyed immediately.

(3) Materials shall be carried for the construction on the upper-deck of a separate temporary hospital for the treatment of such cases of sickness as it may be considered desirable specially to segregate (such as small-pox, cholera, yellow fever or plague) and for use in the event of the permanent hospital accommodation becoming insufficient owing to any general outbreak of sickness. The part of the upper deck upon which such hospital shall, if required, be erected, shall be pointed out and measured off by the Inspector. The framework of the hospital shall be either of iron (in pieces that can be easily fitted together) or of wooden spars or bamboos. The roof shall be tented, and both the roof and the side walls shall be made of stout canvas and be perfectly water-tight, due provision being at the same time made for ventilation.

The floor shall be raised at least 4 inches from the deck. The superficial area of the floor shall be not less than the greater of the following areas, namely:—

- (a) 144 square feet or,
- (b) such area as will, together with the permanent hospital, accommodate four out of every hundred, or fraction of an even hundred, of the pilgrims on board the ship.

(4) Every hospital, permanent or temporary, shall be provided with a special latrine.

(5) In cases of sickness which it has been considered desirable to segregate no person other than the Medical Officer and the person or persons charged with the duty of looking after the patients shall have access to the patients and any person other than the medical officer and medical attendants referred to in rule 163 who has had access to the patients shall, so far as possible, be prevented from coming into contact with any other person on board.

108. A suitable dispensary to be approved by the Inspector shall be provided. The dispensary shall be kept open for two hours in the morning and two hours in the evening

*The fittings used in constructing permanent hospitals should be of iron in preference to wood.

113. (1) Every pilgrim ship shall carry a disinfecting stove approved by the Health Officer of the port in British India at which the voyage is to commence.

(2) Articles of bedding, carpets and clothes which have been used by patients affected with cholera, plague, dysentery or any other infectious disease or by persons who have had access to such patients shall, if their value is negligible, be thrown into the sea or if the ship is in a port or canal be destroyed by fire. If their value is more than negligible, they shall immediately be carried for disinfection to the disinfecting stove in impermeable bags sprinkled with a solution of corrosive sublimate and shall be disinfected under the supervision of the Medical Officer.

(3) The excreta and dejecta of persons showing symptoms of cholera, plague, dysentery or any other infectious disease, who are not able to use the hospital latrines shall be collected in vessels containing a disinfecting solution, and vessels shall be emptied into the hospital latrines which shall be thoroughly disinfected every time this is done.

(4) Articles other than those specified in sub-rule (2) which have come into contact with persons suffering from cholera, plague, dysentery or any other infectious disease shall be thoroughly disinfected in the following manner:—

- (a) Articles so contaminated or suspected of being so contaminated shall, unless they are liable to be destroyed by exposure to heat, be disinfected in the disinfecting stoves under pressure, the stove being maintained at a temperature (to be tested during each operation) of 220° Fahr. and the articles being exposed to this temperature for 15 minutes.
- (b) Articles liable to be destroyed by exposure to the heat of a disinfecting stove, such as metals, leather, tables, lockers, etc., shall be disinfected by being washed with disinfecting solution.*

- (b) Persons in attendance on the sick should use the corrosive sublimate solution, when washing themselves in the proportion of one part of the solution to 2,000 parts of water.
- (c) Phenic acid should be used to disinfect articles which cannot be exposed to a temperature of 220° Fahr. or to contact with sublimate solutions, such as metals, instruments, etc.
- (d) Slaked lime is specially useful to disinfect the evacuation of cholera patients; in the absence of slaked lime phenic acid will answer the same purpose. When slaked lime is used for disinfecting liquids, it should be used in the proportion of three lbs. of lime to ten gallons of the liquid to be disinfected.

- (c) The hold of the ship shall be strewn from time to time with a sufficient quantity of iron sulphate to neutralise the sulphuretted hydrogen, and the water in the hold shall then, unless the ship is in dock, be pumped out and the hold washed with seawater and sprinkled with corrosive sublimate solution.

Such modifications may be notified in a general notice to aircraft owners and ground engineers or in a special notice to the owner of a particular aircraft.

(2) If modifications (including changes of equipment or its installation) which affect the safety of the flying machine are carried out in a flying machine in respect of which a certificate of airworthiness is in force, then, until the modifications have been approved by the Governor-General in Council, the flying machine shall not fly except in so far as under these Rules it might fly if it had no certificate of airworthiness.

(3) Any such modifications shall be carried out by an approved method and shall be inspected by the appropriate person licensed under rule 32, who shall certify the modification in the form and manner laid down in Section E of Schedule IV.

30-B. Right of Inspection.—Any person authorised by the Governor-General in Council for this purpose may at any time inspect any flying machine which is required by these Rules to be certified as airworthy or in respect of which a certificate of airworthiness is in force, and may, in the case of a flying machine which is required by these Rules to be certified as airworthy, cause the flying machine to be detained until such repairs or modifications as he may consider necessary to render the machine fit for flight are executed.

31. Daily inspection.—(1) A public transport flying machine effecting public transport, other than under a private charter, shall not commence any flight unless it has, within the preceding 24 hours, been inspected and certified as safe for flight in accordance with these Rules by the appropriate person licensed under rule 32.

Provided further that no such flying machine shall commence any flight if, since such inspection, it has suffered any damage or revealed any defect which would render the machine unsafe for flight and which could not, in accordance with ordinary aeronautical practice, be remedied by the pilot or crew.

(2) The certificate required by sub-rule (1) of this Rule shall be given in the form and manner specified in Section D of Schedule IV.

(3) The pilot or commander of every flying machine which is required by these Rules to be certified as airworthy shall before commencing any flight satisfy himself in the manner laid down in Section D of Schedule IV, according to the circumstances of the flight, that the flying machine is safe for flight.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Simla, the 31st August 1933.

No. F. 10-IV-R.-11/33.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-rule (2) of rule 33, rules 37 and 42 and clause (d) of rule 44 of the Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules and with the previous sanction of the Secretary of State in Council obtained in accordance with rule 9 of those Rules, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct, that the amendments to the Civil Service Regulations made by the Secretary of State in Council in his despatch No. 5-Financial, dated the 1st June 1933, and published in the Government of India, Finance Department, Notification No. F. 10-IV-R.-11/33, dated the 31st August 1933, shall apply to the Services in respect of which power to make rules is delegated to the Governor-General in Council in the said Rules.

No. F. 10-IV-R.-11/33.—The following Resolution by the Secretary of State for India in Council is published for general information:—

In exercise of the powers conferred by subsection (2) of section 96B of the Government of India Act, the Secretary of State, with the concurrence of a majority of votes at a meeting of the Council of India held this 30th day of May 1933, makes the following amendments in the Civil Service Regulations, namely:—

1. For the first sentence of Article 510 of the said Regulations, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“When a person who was formerly in the civil or military employment of any Government in India obtains re-employment, whether temporarily or permanently, in Government service or in the service of a local Fund, it shall be incumbent on him to declare to the appointing authority the amount of any gratuity, bonus or pension granted to him in respect of the previous employment.”

2. For the note under Article 510 of the said Regulations, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“The principle of this article applies in the case of continued employment on retirement from Government service. The amount of the pension to be declared is that sanctioned originally, i.e., it shall be inclusive of any amount that may have been commuted (vide Articles 524B and 524C).”

3. In section I of Chapter XXI of the said Regulations, the following shall be inserted as Article 510B, namely:—

“Notwithstanding anything contained in the rules in this chapter, a wound or other extraordinary pension sanctioned under Chapter XXXVIII of these Regulations and a wound or injury or disability pension or a disability addition to pension awarded under the military rules shall continue to be drawn by a retired Government servant, civil or military, during re-employment or continued employment, and shall be subject only to the conditions of its award. The amount of such pension or addition to pension shall not be taken into account when fixing the pay during re-employment or continued employment.

“Note.—Where the military pension is consolidated and service and disability elements are not explicitly differentiated, the total pension may be split up in the following manner. The service portion of the pension will be represented by the service pension earned or, if no service pension has been earned, by the proportionate service pension calculated with reference to the minimum ordinary pension admissible for the rank and the actual length of service rendered. In calculating this service element, an amount of 8 annas and over shall be taken as a whole rupee, amounts of less than 8 annas being ignored. The disability portion of the pension will be the balance.”

4. From Article 524B of the said Regulations the words “before or” occurring after the word “pension” shall be deleted.

5. In section II of Chapter XXI of the said Regulations, the following shall be inserted as Article 524C, namely:—

“In the case of a pensioner a portion of whose pension has been commuted before re-employment, the original amount of the pension should be taken into consideration in fixing the total receipts during re-employment or continued employment and not merely the uncommuted pension.”

6. For the first sentence of Article 525 of the said Regulations, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“Except where it is otherwise expressly provided, the rules in section II of this chapter do not apply to a military officer, departmental officer, warrant or non-commissioned officer or soldier who is taken into or allowed to continue in civil employ after he has earned a pension under military rules.”

7. For Article 526 (a) of the said Regulations, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“When a person formerly in military service obtains employment in the civil department after having been granted a military pension, he shall continue to draw his military pension, but the authority competent to fix the pay and allowances of the post in which he is re-employed shall have, in fixing his pay and allowances in the post in which he is re-employed, the power to take into account the amount of pension, including such portion of it as may have been commuted.”

8. For Article 526 (b) of the said Regulations, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“When, however, a military officer, departmental officer, warrant or non-commissioned officer or soldier earns a pension under military rules while he is in civil employ, the military pension shall not be granted for so long as he continues in civil employ.”

9. Articles 527, 528 and 528A of the said Regulations shall be cancelled.

Calcutta University.NOTIFICATION.

Senate House, the 8th September 1933.

The Jogendrachandra Ghosh's Research Prize in Comparative Indian Law for the year 1933 will be awarded on an essay on the following subjects selected for the prize:—

- (1) Proprietary rights of women under the ancient Hindu Law with special reference to the changes introduced by judicial decisions and British India Legislation.
- (2) Kalivarjyas or prohibitions in the Kuli Age—their evolution and present legal hearing.

The attention of the intending candidates is expressly called to the following conditions laid down for the prize:—

(i) By Comparative Indian Law shall be meant the Hindu Smriti Sastra called "Byahuharkhandu" and a comparison of the standard Sanskrit authorities on the subject with British Indian Law as contained in Parliamentary Statutes, Regulations and Acts of the Indian Legislative Council, and the law as laid down in leading cases. The study, which it shall be the object of the prize to encourage, is the history of the Hindu Smriti Sastra as it existed at and from the time when India came under British rule and how and to what extent it has been altered under British influence, regard being had not only to the existing Statutes, Regulations and Acts, but also to those which, having been in operation for a time, have now been repealed or become obsolete and regard being also had not only to the existing leading cases but to cases which were considered leading at one time, but have now been overruled, and how and to what extent such alteration has affected Hindu society.

(ii) The essay may deal with the whole of the Indian Comparative Law as before defined or with part or parts thereof, but in no case shall an essay be entitled to competition which in any way attacks the religious belief, usages or institution of His Majesty's subject.

(iii) By Adhyapak shall be meant scholars of the Smriti Sastra, students of the Smriti in the Government Sanskrit College in Calcutta, and in the tols of indigenous Brahmanical schools which send in candidates for the title examinations held in that college, and students in other similar institutions in India.

(iv) Every candidate for the prize shall be required to indicate generally in a preface to his thesis, and specially in notes, the sources from which his information is taken, the extent to which he has availed himself of the work of others, and the portion of the thesis which he claims as original. He shall further be required to state whether his research has been conducted independently, under advice or in co-operation with others, and in what respects his investigations appear to him to tend to the advancement of knowledge.

(v) Successful candidates shall be required to publish their essays, and if necessary they shall receive help from the University for the purpose.

(vi) The essay or essays shall be written either in English or in Bengali, but if any competitor sends in an essay in vernacular language other than Bengali he shall be bound to furnish English translation thereof.

Every candidate for the prize should send in three copies of his thesis to the undersigned on or before the 23rd December 1933.

PART VI

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly, and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 22nd August 1933:—

L. A. BILL No. 37 OF 1933.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Income-tax (Third Amendment) Act, 1933.

(2) It shall come into force on the 1st day of April, 1934.

Amendment of section 23, Act XI of 1922.

2. In section 23 of the Indian Income-tax Act, XI of 1922, 1922 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—

“(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 3, where any portion of an assessee's income is chargeable under the head “Salaries” or under the head “Interest on securities”, income-tax but not super-tax on such portion shall, at the time of making an assessment under this section, be charged in accordance with the rates which were in force for the financial year in which such portion was received by the assessee.”

Insertion of new section 39A in Act XI of 1922.

Summary assessment of small incomes.

3. In Chapter IV of the said Act, after section 39, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“39A. (1) If, at any time when total incomes of less than two thousand rupees are chargeable with income-tax, the Income-tax Officer is of opinion that the total income of an assessee is less than that amount, he may, save where he has served a notice under sub-section (2) of section 22, make a summary assessment of the income of such assessee to the best of his judgment, and shall serve on the assessee a notice of demand in the prescribed form; and such notice shall be deemed to be a notice of demand under section 29.

(2) Any assessee in respect of whom such summary assessment has been made may, within thirty days of receipt of the notice of demand, make an application to the Income-tax Officer for the cancellation or revision of the assessment, and the Income-tax Officer shall, after examining any accounts and documents and hearing any evidence which the assessee may produce, and such other evidence as the Income-tax Officer may require, determine, by order in writing, the amount of the tax, if any, payable by the assessee, and such determination shall not be subject to appeal under section 30:

Provided that, if any assessee making such application files therewith a return of his income under sub-section (2) of section 22, the application shall be deemed to be a return under that sub-section and shall be dealt with accordingly.

(3) A copy of an order under sub-section (2) shall be served on the assessee to whom it relates and shall be deemed to be a notice of demand under section 29.

(4) In exercising his powers under section 34 of assessing incomes, profits and gains which have escaped assessment in any year or have been assessed at too low a rate, the Income-tax Officer may, in respect of total incomes which in his opinion are less than two thousand rupees, follow the procedure laid down in this section.”

Amendment of section 48, Act XI of 1922.

4. In section 48 of the said Act,—

(a) in sub-section (1) the following Explanation shall be added, namely:—

“Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section, and notwithstanding anything contained in section 3, the rate of income-tax applicable to a shareholder's total income of the year in which a dividend was declared shall be the rate so applicable, if any, which was in force for the financial year in which the dividend was declared.”; and

(b) in sub-section (3) the following Explanation shall be added, namely:—

“Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, and notwithstanding anything contained in section 3, the rate of income-tax applicable to a person's total income of the previous year in which any deduction above-mentioned has been made shall be the rate so applicable, if any, which was in force for the financial year in which the deduction was made.”

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of the Bill is to introduce into the permanent income-tax law two sets of provisions relating to the details of assessment which have in the recent past been the subject from time to time of ad hoc action, which has taken the form either of entries in the Finance Act of the year or of notifications under section 60 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922. The desirability of incorporating provisions of this nature in the Income-tax Act itself rather than in the various Finance Acts was strongly represented in the course of debate in the Legislative Assembly during the last budget session. The two sets of provisions concerned relate to—

- (i) the reassessment in the following year of tax deducted at source and the like;
- (ii) a summary procedure for the assessment of small incomes.

2. Income-tax is levied by deduction at source at the time of payment on incomes chargeable under the heads "Salaries" and "Interest on securities." Such incomes are also liable to assessment in the ordinary way in the following financial year when the amount deducted at source is duly adjusted (vide section 18 of the Act). As a result of this, when the rates are altered, the income of the preceding year under either of these heads as well as the income for that year both become liable to the revised rates. To avoid the hardship involved in this when rates are raised, notifications have in the past been issued under section 60 of the Act applying the rates in force at the time of payment of such incomes to assessments thereof in the following year; while once the practice of giving this relief when rates were enhanced had been established, it became logically necessary to apply the same principle to occasions when rates were reduced, thereby avoiding reassessment and the grant of refunds to all the taxpayers concerned. This last necessity was accepted by the Legislature when it incorporated the proviso in item A(1) in Schedule II to the Indian Finance Act, 1933. It is now proposed to lay down definitely in the Income-tax Act itself that the rates applicable to the assessment of incomes of this kind shall be the rates in force at the time of payment. Clause 2 of the Bill has been drafted accordingly.

3. Closely connected with the case of tax actually deducted at source is that of dividends. Sub-sections (1) and (3) of section 48 assume that the rates of tax at the time of the declaration of a dividend or payment of any income under the head "Salaries" or "Interest on securities" will be unchanged at the time a refund is claimed. This leads to very anomalous results when rates are changed, and to avoid them, notifications under section 60 of the Act have been issued from year to year in the past. Clause 4 of the Bill proposes to correct this defect in the Act permanently.

4. In the Income-tax Act of 1918, a separate Chapter was introduced relating to a summary procedure for the assessment of incomes less than two thousand rupees. As these incomes were exempt from tax when the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, was enacted, these provisions were omitted. When, however, in 1931-32, the limit of exemption was once again lowered to Rs. 1,000, these provisions were revived, and have been hitherto incorporated from year to year in the Finance Act. It is now proposed that they should be incorporated in the Income-tax Act itself, and clause 3 of the Bill has been introduced accordingly.

(3) If the number of registered candidates is greater than the number of vacancies, a poll shall be held.

22. (1) Before the date of publication of the final list of candidates under rule 20, the Commissioners at a meeting shall fix the place or places (hereinafter referred to as polling centres) at which the poll shall be held on the election day and the hours between which voters shall be admitted into the polling enclosures, provided that if they fail to do so, the Chairman shall fix such hours and such polling centres.

(2) The poll shall be held at the time and at the polling centres so fixed, provided that where it is considered necessary, separate polling centres may be fixed for the recording of votes by female voters.

(3) Notice of such time and such polling centres shall be given by beat of drum and by the publication of notices at the municipal office at the same time as the publication of the final list of candidates under rule 20.

23. After the hours mentioned in the notice referred to in rule 22, no person shall be admitted within the polling enclosure but the votes of all duly registered voters who are already within the enclosures shall be recorded.

24. Each voter shall be entitled to vote for the ward and for the special ward, if any, in respect of which his name has been registered, and for no other, and to give as many votes as there are vacancies for each ward for which he is thus entitled to vote:

Provided that he shall not give more than one vote on the same voting paper to any one candidate.

25. (1) There shall be in each ward at least one polling centre.

(2) Where the number of voters in any ward is large or where separate arrangements are found to be necessary for female voters, the Commissioners at a meeting, or with their approval the Chairman, may provide more than one polling centre for such ward, and shall cause a notice to be published showing the names and serial numbers as given in the Final Electoral Roll of persons whose votes will be recorded at any specified polling centre in the ward.

(3) The Commissioners at a meeting shall appoint a polling officer who is neither himself a candidate for election nor the agent of a candidate to preside over the election at each polling centre, and, where there are several polling centres in one ward, shall declare one of the polling officers to be chief polling officer.

(4) If a polling officer for any reason fail to attend, the Chairman shall appoint another fit and proper person who is not himself a candidate or the agent of a candidate, to take his place.

(5) To assist the polling officer, there shall be appointed by the Commissioners at a meeting an Election Committee consisting of not more than five ratepayers of the ward who are not themselves candidates or agents of candidates. No election shall be void because any or all of the members of the committee fail to attend: if less than three members attend, the polling officer may appoint other ratepayers not being themselves candidates or agents of a candidate up to the number of three and the persons thus appointed shall then be deemed to be members of the Election Committee.

26. (1) On the morning of the election day the Chairman shall supply the polling officer with the following:—

- (a) a ballot box provided with an aperture for receipt of voting papers;
- (b) an instrument for stamping the official mark on such papers;
- (c) a copy of the Final Electoral Roll, with the particulars prescribed in rule 25 (2);

(d) a bound book or books containing as many voting papers serially numbered in foil and counterfoil as there are voters entered in the Final Electoral Roll for that polling centre, and other persons entitled under rule 32 (1) to vote at that polling centre;

(e) if necessary for use in connection with an election in a special ward, a special ballot box of distinctive colour and a bound book or books of special voting papers of the same colour as the ballot box.

(2) The Chairman shall cause to be provided at each polling centre sufficient writing materials with which voters may mark the voting papers.

(3) The official mark shall be kept secret until the commencement of the polling.

27. The voting paper shall be printed in English or both in English and Bengali in Form D annexed to these rules. The names of candidates in English shall be in alphabetical order. When the voting paper is printed in both the languages the name shall be printed in Bengali below that in English in each case.

28. (1) On the election day the polling officer shall admit to the outer compartment of the polling booth the candidates and such agents as may be selected by the candidates, to assist in the identification of voters, provided that there shall be present at one time, in addition to the candidates, not more than one agent of each candidate.

(2) Only voters, members of the Election Committee and such other persons (if any) as the polling officer may by special directions admit, shall be allowed to enter the inner compartment of the polling booth.

(3) No candidate or agent of a candidate shall be admitted into the inner compartment.

(4) The polling officer shall regulate the number of voters to be admitted at any one time into either the inner or the outer compartment.

29. Immediately before the commencement of the poll the polling officer shall satisfy such persons as may be present in the outer compartment that each ballot box is empty and shall then lock it and place upon it his seal in such manner as to prevent its being opened without breaking such seal.

30. The candidates and their agents shall not speak to or address any intending voter in the polling booth, but may submit to the polling officer objections to a voter on any of the following four grounds:—

(1) That his name is not on the Final Electoral Roll of the ward in respect of which the election is being held.

(2) That his claim to be a certain voter shown on the Final Electoral Roll is false.

(3) That he has already voted.

(4) Where there is more than one polling centre in a ward, that under rule 24 he is not entitled to record his vote at the polling centre in respect of which the objection is raised.

31. The procedure for recording a vote shall be as follows:—

(i) There shall be no voting by proxy.

(ii) As each intending voter enters the outer compartment, his name and his number in the Final Electoral Roll shall be called out, so that everybody present can hear them.

(iii) No objection to an intending voter shall be entertained except on the grounds mentioned in rule 30.

(iv) Any objection shall be summarily decided by the polling officer, who may for this purpose take such evidence as may be available on the spot.

(v) If after taking such evidence the polling officer disallows the objection or if no objection is raised, he shall hand the voter the foil of a voting paper for the ward and for the special ward, if any, and shall allow him to proceed to vote.

(vi) Immediately before a voting paper is delivered to a voter, it shall be marked on the back with the official mark and an indication shall be placed in a copy of the Electoral Roll against the number of the voter to denote that he has received a voting paper, but no note shall be made of the particular voting paper which he has received.

(vii) The number of the voter in the Final Electoral Roll shall be marked on the counterfoil of his voting paper.

- (viii) A voter who has received a voting paper shall forthwith be directed, by the polling officer or a person (not being a candidate or his agent) deputed by the polling officer for this purpose, to a place set apart therefor in the inner compartment and shall there mark a cross, within the space headed "voter's mark" on the voting paper, against the name of any candidate for whom he intends to vote. He shall then conceal his vote by folding the voting paper and shall put the paper so folded into the ballot box. He shall vote without undue delay and shall quit the polling enclosure as soon as he has put the voting paper into the ballot box.
- (ix) If a voter has been given voting papers both for the ward and for a special ward, he shall put the respective papers into ballot boxes of the colours to which they correspond.
- (x) If the voter is unable to read the voting paper or to make a cross thereon, the polling officer shall mark the vote on the voting paper according to the direction of the voter at the place set apart within the inner compartment under clause (viii) of this rule, provided that if the voter so request he shall do so in the outer compartment. The voter shall then put the voting paper folded as prescribed in clause (viii) into the ballot box.

32. (1) A polling officer or a member of an Election Committee at a polling centre where he is not entitled to vote shall be allowed to record his vote there on his producing a certificate from the polling officer of another polling centre that he is entitled to vote at such other centre.

(2) His vote shall be recorded in the manner prescribed in rule 31 except that—

- (a) the name of the centre at which he is entitled to vote shall be entered in the counterfoil, and
- (b) his voting paper after being filled in and folded as there prescribed shall be placed, with the certificate, in a sealed envelope by the polling officer and sent to the polling officer of the other polling centre who shall remove it from the envelope and put it in the appropriate ballot box.

33. It shall be the duty of the polling officer and the Election Committee to see that votes are recorded with the utmost secrecy, that the number on the voting paper handed over to a voter is not divulged to any other person, that no persons are admitted to either compartment except under these rules and that persons who have recorded their votes or against whom objections have been allowed are caused to leave immediately. It shall also be their duty to see that these rules and any special directions given by the polling officer thereunder are strictly observed.

34. (1) On the conclusion of the poll, the polling officer shall, with the assistance of the Election Committee, in the presence of the candidates or their agents if any—

- (a) satisfy himself that the seals affixed to the ballot-boxes under rule 29 are intact, and either
- (b) forthwith, when there is only one polling centre in the ward, open the ballot-box and scrutinise the votes in accordance with rule 35, or
- (c) when there are several polling centres in the ward send to the chief polling officer the ballot-boxes and the books of counterfoils and unused foils of voting papers properly sealed.

(2) The chief polling officer shall thereupon with the assistance of the Election Committee, in the presence of the candidates or their agents if any, satisfy himself that the seals are intact, open the ballot-boxes and scrutinise the votes in accordance with rule 35.

35. Any voting paper not marked, marked otherwise than with a cross, or marked elsewhere than in the space provided for the purpose, or on which more crosses are marked than there are vacancies, or on which a cross is so placed as to make it doubtful to which candidate the vote has been given, or on which any mark is made by which the voter may be identified shall be invalid. A note to this effect shall be made upon it by the polling officer and it shall not be included in the count.

36. When the voting papers have been scrutinised the polling officer or chief polling officer shall with the assistance of the Election Committee, in the presence of the candidates or their agents if any, count the valid votes and declare to be elected in any ward the candidate or candidates to whom the highest number of votes has been given, in the following manner:—

- (a) In a ward where there is a seat reserved for a minority community he shall declare the result first of the election to the reserved seat and afterwards of the election to the other seat.
- (b) Among the candidates belonging to the minority community, he shall declare elected to the reserved seat that candidate who polls the most votes.
- (c) If there be an equality of votes and if the number of vacancies does not admit of all the candidates who have obtained an equality of votes being elected, he shall by drawing lots in such manner as he may determine select one of such candidates whom he shall declare to be elected.

37. The polling officer or chief polling officer shall forthwith, if not himself the Chairman of the municipality, report the result of the election to the Chairman.

38. When a candidate has been elected for more than one ward, he shall—

- (a) if in any such ward no votes have been recorded for another candidate who has not himself been elected for it, be declared to have been elected only for that ward, and
 - (b) otherwise, within five days from the date of the election, declare which of such wards he will represent:
- and if he fails to make such declaration, the Chairman shall forthwith declare the ward which such candidate shall represent. In either case such candidate shall be held to be elected in the ward in respect of which a valid declaration has been made under this rule and in every other ward for which the said candidate has been elected the result of the election shall be determined as if no votes had been recorded for him:

Provided that, if there is no other candidate for whom votes have been recorded to fill the vacancy thus caused, a fresh election shall be held.

29. When the voting papers have been scrutinised and counted, the polling officer or the chief polling officer, as the case may be, shall forthwith replace them in the ballot-box from which they were taken and seal it in the manner prescribed by rule 29. He shall also seal up the books of counterfoils and unused foils of voting papers. If he is not himself the Chairman, he shall make them over with the ballot-box to the Chairman to be kept in safe custody until the books and the voting papers are destroyed under rule 40.

40. On the expiry of 30 days from the date of the declaration of the result of the election, or, if an election petition has been filed under section 36 of the Act, as soon as possible after the disposal of the petition, the voting papers in the ballot-boxes and the sealed books containing unused voting papers and counterfoils shall be destroyed in the presence of such municipal commissioner or officer as the Commissioners at a meeting may appoint for this purpose.

41. The list of duly elected candidates for the whole municipality shall be forwarded by the Chairman through the District Magistrate to the Commissioner of Division for publication by him in the Calcutta Gazette.

42. In a municipality where the Magistrate is the Chairman, the duties assigned to the Chairman in these rules shall be discharged by the Vice-Chairman.

43. If the Local Government is satisfied that all or any of the duties assigned by these rules to the Chairman or Commissioners at a meeting or by section 21 of the Act to the Committee therein specified, have not been duly performed, it may direct that the District Magistrate shall appoint a person or persons to perform such duties.

44. No person having directly or indirectly by himself or his partner any share or interest in any contract or employment with, by or on behalf of the Commissioners, or holding any office of profit under the Commissioners, shall, directly or indirectly, engage in canvassing for votes or otherwise assist in the election of any candidate otherwise than by giving his own vote.

45. All costs incurred in the preparation, printing and publication of the Electoral Rolls, the publication of notices, the holding of elections, or the taking of any other necessary action under these rules, shall be payable by the Commissioners out of the municipal fund.

BENGAL.

Sudhir Kumar Ghosh,
Assistant Sub-Inspector of Police.

On the 15th March 1933 at about 3 p.m. a fire broke out in a house in Maheshpur and owing to lack of water twelve huts were completely destroyed by fire.

Assistant Sub-Inspector Sudhir Kumar Ghosh attached to Maheshpur police-station who happened to be in the village at the time was attracted by the cries of the people. He ran to the spot and with the assistance of the villagers succeeded in saving several houses. When the fire was at its height, the wife of a villager ran to the Assistant Sub-Inspector and said that her husband, an old man, had entered their hut in order to save their goods but had not returned. At considerable personal risk the Assistant Sub-Inspector unhesitatingly entered the burning house and dragged out the man; the latter was dazed and almost unconscious and the house collapsed immediately after his rescue.

N. B.—This award is made for gallantry under regulation 4 (i) of the regulations governing the grant of the Indian Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 2870L.C.—31st August, 1933.—The following report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Embankment (Amendment) Bill, 1933, by Mr. N. K. Basu, M.L.C., with the Bill as amended by the Committee, is hereby published for general information.

Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Embankment (Amendment)
Bill, 1933, by Mr. N. K. Basu, M.L.C.

We, the members of the Select Committee of the Bengal Legislative Council to which the Bengal Embankment (Amendment) Bill, 1933, was referred by a motion carried in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 14th August, 1933, have the honour to submit this our report with the Bill as amended by us annexed. All matter omitted by the Select Committee has been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets and all new matter inserted has been underlined.

1. The Bill will be published shortly under section 49 of the Bengal Legislative Council Rules and Standing Orders.

2. The Committee met on the 17th August, 1933, and concluded its sitting on that day.

3. We do not consider that the Bill has been so altered as to require republication, other than the ordinary publication required under the rules.

4. The more important changes made in the Bill are detailed below :—

Preamble.—We have made formal drafting changes in the preamble and long title.

Short title.—A short title has been added as usual as clause 1.

Clause 2.—We have redrafted the “explanation” in the Bill as an “exception” to section 76 of the Bengal Embankment Act, 1882, and have numbered it as clause 2.

While accepting the principle contained in the Bill as introduced, we have provided certain necessary safeguards which will be found set out in the exception.

We recommend that the Bill, as amended by us, be passed.

Minute of dissent by Mr. R. Maiti, M.L.C.

I sign the report of the Select Committee subject to the following note of dissent :

In my opinion " the explanation " in the Bill was more clear than the " exception " proposed by the Select Committee in its place. The original intention of the mover of the Bill was to bring relief in respect of the damage done to the entire embankment but the " exception " proposed merely suggests relief to some particular portion of it, viz., a breach or cut only which forms a gap between two portions of an existing embankment which were continuous before such breach or cut. So it is clear that the " exception " has not contemplated cases where damage has been done to the entire length of the embankment by flood which is of frequent occurrence in many parts of Bengal. So in order to cover all sorts of cases I would rather prefer the " Explanation " in the Bill with certain modification. If the " exception " is at all to be accepted, I suggest the following changes :—

In clause 2 after the words " breach or cut " wherever they occur, the words " or any damage " should be added.

Clause 2(c) should be altogether omitted in view of the changes I have proposed in clause 2 above. If there is an apprehension of extending the embankment at its ends under the plea of this " exception " proposed, then there is the safeguard provided in clause 2(d).

Lastly, I am very much inclined to add that many embankments have been greatly damaged by the flood that occurred in the year 1913. When it is intended to bring relief to the sufferers by accepting the principle contained in the Bill, it is desirable that they should not be deprived of the benefit of the proposed amendment of section 76 of Bengal Act II of 1882. I therefore propose that another proviso should also be added for giving retrospective effect.

“Exception.—This section shall not render unlawful the repair of a breach or cut in an embankment so as to restore the embankment to the same dimensions as it had immediately before such breach occurred or cut was made; provided that—

*This column will be blank if the woman is not represented by a vakil.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under the Bengal Muhammadan Marriages and Divorces Registration Act, 1876, a Muhammadan Registrar is not empowered to register the class of divorce known as Talaq-i-bilyad, in which the wife effects the divorce in accordance with the authority conferred upon her by her husband as a condition of marriage. This omission has for a long time been regarded as a grievance and it is, accordingly, proposed to empower a Muhammadan Marriage Registrar to register a Talaq-i-bilyad, on production of the registered document by which the husband delegated the power of divorce to the wife, or on production of an attested copy of an entry in the register of marriages showing that such delegation has been made, and to register the re-marriage of a woman, who has secured her divorce through Talaq-i-bilyad.

PART VI

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly, and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of State on the 29th August 1933:—

COUNCIL OF STATE BILL No. 3 OF 1933.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Arbitration Act, 1899, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Arbitration Act, 1899, for the purpose hereinafter IX of 1899. appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Arbitration (Amendment) Act, 1933.

Amendment of section 19, Act IX of 1899.

2. In section 19 of the Indian Arbitration Act, IX of 1899. 1899, for the words "the Court," where they first occur, the words "the judicial authority before which the proceedings are pending" shall be substituted, and for the said words where they occur for the second time, the words "such authority" shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS, AND REASONS.

Under section 19 of the Indian Arbitration Act, 1899, where any matter which falls within an agreement to arbitrate is the subject of legal proceedings, any party may apply to "the Court" to stay proceedings; and thereupon the Court may, after an inquiry, stay further proceedings, in order that the agreement to arbitrate may be enforced. The intention probably was that this power should be exercised by the Court before which the proceedings are pending, but the phrase "the Court" is defined in section 4 of the Act as meaning the High Court in Presidency-towns and the District Court elsewhere. Hence a conflict of judicial rulings has arisen, which leaves it doubtful whether a Presidency Small Cause Court has the powers of "the Court" under section 19. The Bill is intended to make it clear that the Court referred to in section 19 is the Court before which the legal proceedings are pending.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 28th August, 1933:—

L. A. BILL No. 39 of 1933.

A Bill further to amend the Cotton Textile Industry (Protection) Act, 1930.

WHEREAS it is expedient to continue for a further period the protection already given to the cotton textile industry in British India, and for that purpose further to extend the operation of the duties imposed by the Cotton Textile Industry (Protection) Act, 1930; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

XVII of 1930.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Cotton Textile Industry Protection (Second Amendment) Act, 1933.

Amendment of sections 2 and 3,
Act XVII of 1930.

2. In sub-section (2) of section 2, and in sub-section (2) of section 3 of the Cotton Textile Industry (Protection) Act, 1930, for the word and figures "October, 1933" the word and figures "March, 1934" shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

By the Cotton Textile Industry (Protection) Act, 1930, protective duties were imposed on cotton piece-goods for a period of three years in order to give the cotton mill industry in India temporary shelter against foreign competition. By the same Act the operation of the duty imposed by the Indian Tariff (Cotton Yarn Amendment) Act, 1927, was extended for a further period of three years on account of the unfair competition arising from the prevalence of inferior labour conditions in China. These duties were due to expire on the 31st March, 1933, but were extended up to the 31st October, 1933, by the Cotton Textile Industry Protection (Amendment) Act, 1933, pending formulation of the decision of the Government of India on the Tariff Board's Report regarding continued protection to the cotton mill industry.

2. As a result of the denunciation by India of the Anglo-Japanese Convention of 1904 in April last, the question of the conclusion of a new commercial agreement between India and Japan has arisen and representatives of the Government of Japan are shortly expected in India to initiate discussions with the Government of India in this matter. In view of these impending discussions, the Government of India are of opinion that they should not proceed to give legislative effect in the present session to their conclusions with regard to the Tariff Board's Report on the cotton textile industry since they may require radical alteration in the light of any agreement which may be eventually reached. The Bill accordingly proposes to continue the existing protection granted to the industry by the Cotton Textile Industry (Protection) Act, 1930, as subsequently amended, for a further period up to the 31st March, 1934.

33. The enactments mentioned in the Schedule are hereby repealed to the extent specified in the fourth column thereof.

THE SCHEDULE.

ENACTMENTS REPEALED.

(See section 33.)

Year.	Number.	Short title.	Extent of repeal.
1899	VIII	The Indian Petroleum Act, 1899.	The whole.
1914	IV	The Decentralization Act, 1914.	So much of the Schedule as relates to the Indian Petroleum Act, 1899.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Indian Petroleum Act, 1899, was passed at a time when the use of petroleum, particularly of dangerous petroleum or petrol, was limited, and with the great developments in the use of petroleum that have taken place in the last 30 years it has become unsuitable in several ways. As early as 1903 the attention of the Government of India was drawn to the inconvenience arising from the existence in different provinces of separate sets of rules to regulate the importation, possession and transport of petroleum. The present Act does not permit the issue by the Government of India of a set of rules applicable throughout British India, and the only way in which it has been possible to secure uniformity has been by the issue by Local Government from time to time of similar rules with the sanction of the Central Government. Local Governments and the interests concerned were consulted on the subject of revising the Act in 1925-26, and it was agreed by all Local Governments that the rule-making power should be vested in the Central Government. In addition a number of other amendments which it is proposed to make from the existing law are "Explanatory of substance" Notes on Clauses.

2. The opportunity has been taken to rearrange the whole law. In addition to the "Preliminary" portion and the final "Supplemental" chapter, the Bill contains three separate chapters. Chapter I relates to the control of petroleum and Chapter II to its testing, while Chapter III contains the necessary penal provisions and what may be described as criminal procedure.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 1.—Only certain portions of the existing Act apply to the whole of British India, while power is given to Local Governments to apply the remainder of the Act to areas within their jurisdiction. Owing to the greatly extended use of petroleum, it is now advisable that the entire Act should apply to the whole of British India.

Clause 2(a).—The definition of petroleum in the present Act is of the categorical kind; a more technical definition based on the chemical composition of petroleum is proposed.

Clause 2(b).—The proviso to the definition of “dangerous petroleum” in the existing Act has been omitted as obsolete. Provision for allowing minor variations has been made in the rule-making power in clauses 21(g) and (i).

Clause 2(d).—The revised definition of the word “transport” is designed to ensure that petroleum which has started from British India and comes back to British India by sea or across other territory in India shall not be treated as imported.

Clauses 3 and 4 provide for control over the import, transport and storage of petroleum. It is intended that this should be effected mainly by rules; and in addition licences may be required in all cases except in the case of the import of non-dangerous petroleum. Most of the matter contained in clause 4 is already in the existing Act in various forms and places, but the following is new:—

Clause (i) gives power to determine in any class of cases whether the consignor, consignee or carrier shall take out the licence for the transport of petroleum.

Clause (k) will enable Government to prevent injury to persons handling or using petroleum arising from the presence of an excessive amount of any poisonous substance such as tetra-ethyl-lead.

Clause 5 gives powers to control by rules the production and refining of petroleum. No system of licences is contemplated. The powers contained in clauses (i), (j) and (k) of section 9(2) of the present Act cover most of the ground of this clause.

Clause 6 corresponds to existing section 7, but proposes to substitute the words “Petrol” or “Motor Spirit” in place of “highly inflammable.” The requirement in existing section 7 that labels should be attached showing the name and address of the consignee, owner, etc., has been dispensed with.

Clauses 7 to 12 collect together the exemptions and powers to exempt which are scattered throughout the present Act, but embody some variations in substance.

Clause 7 imposes the restriction that non-dangerous petroleum possessed without licence shall not be “in bulk,” that is, that none of it shall be contained in any receptacle of more than 200 gallons capacity. Thus the size of the receptacle and not the amount of the petroleum in it will determine whether the petroleum is “in bulk” or not. The reason for this change is that a large receptacle containing only a few gallons of petroleum is more dangerous than the same receptacle when full of petroleum, as the space not occupied by the petroleum is likely to be occupied by an explosive mixture of petroleum vapour and air.

Clause 8 provides for the case of persons who use petrol for cleaning, in petrol lamps, in automatic lighters, etc. It increases for this purpose the limit of dangerous petroleum which may be kept without a licence from three gallons to six and reduces to the same limit the amount which may be imported without a licence.

Clause 9 contains exemptions specially intended for owners of motor conveyances. Clause (a) exempts petroleum kept in a tank in a motor conveyance from the requirement of a licence. Clause (b) gives the further concession of allowing the owner of a motor conveyance to keep a stock of spare petroleum not exceeding twenty gallons.

Clause 10.—Railway administrations have elaborate rules for the carriage of petroleum by rail; and this clause proposes to exempt them from the requirement of any licence in respect of petroleum. ~~Clause 11 is a broader form of the proviso to clause (a) of section 2 of the present Act—definition of petroleum. Petroleum with a flashing point of 200 degrees Fahrenheit or above, whether intended for lubrication or not, can hardly be described as inflammable, and there is no need to apply to it the system of rules and licensing contemplated by the Bill.~~

Clause 12 is new and is based on section 14 of the Indian Explosives Act, 1884.

Clauses 13, 14 and 27.—Section 12 of the existing Act gives power to authorised officers to require dealers in petroleum to show the places and vessels in which petroleum is stored or contained, to help in the inspection of petroleum, and to deliver samples on payment. It is proposed to substitute three separate sections for this. Clause 13 relates chiefly to administrative inspections by qualified technical inspectors. Clause 14 gives a purely routine power to take samples. Clause 27 is intended to bring to light evasions of the Act, particularly the concealment of unlicensed stocks, and contains a power of search. The powers under these three clauses are kept separate as they may be exercised by different officers.

Clauses 15, 16 and 17.—All tests of petroleum under the Act will be carried out by specially appointed testing officers using certified instruments. Any private enterprise may submit a test apparatus of its own for certification.

Clause 18.—The present Act has a Schedule containing elaborate provisions describing the nature of the Test Apparatus, the method of drawing samples and the manner in which the test is carried out. The Bill proposes to relegate all these matters of detail to rules which will be more easily adapted to developing conditions.

Clause 19.—Section 14 of the Act contemplates that the testing of petroleum should be confined to determining whether it is dangerous petroleum or not. But section 11 specifies the flashing point of 200° F., and the rules made under the Act may fix other flashing points as determining the nature of the administrative action which should be taken. This clause therefore requires that the certificate of testing should give the flashing point in every case.

Clause 20.—Section 13 of the present Act is so drawn as to give a testing officer discretion to issue a notice to the person concerned of the time and place of the testing of samples. In this clause it is proposed to give the owner a right to a re-test in the presence of his representative or himself. Provision is also made in this clause and in clause 21(j) for the issue of a fresh certificate free of all charge if the second test shows that the first was erroneous.

Clause 22 is designed to enable certain special rules to be made in respect of matters included in the statutory Schedule to the present Act.

Clause 23 provides a standard maximum punishment of one month's imprisonment and a fine of five hundred rupees for contraventions of the Act and rules generally. Clause 24 provides for fine only for contraventions of clause 6. These clauses reproduce sections 15 and 16 of the existing Act, with drafting changes.

Clause 25 reproduces section 17 of the Act, with drafting changes, and the addition of a new sub-section.

Clause 26 reproduces the substance of section 18.

Clauses 28 and 29 which are new, are based on sections 8 and 9 of the Indian Explosives Act, 1884, but are so drafted as to make them an extension of section 176 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

Clause 31 corresponds to section 22 of the Act which enables control to be exercised over inflammable substances like methyl alcohol and carbide of calcium.

Clause 32 is a redraft of section 23 of the existing Act.

Annual Report of the Royal Botanic Garden and the Gardens in Calcutta and of the Lloyd Botanic Garden, Darjeeling, for 1932-33.

ROYAL BOTANIC GARDEN.

1. General.—Although no record of the number of visitors is kept, the impression gains that the Garden is losing none of its established popularity as a resort for visitors. Week day and holiday sees its shady lawns and open river frontage crowded with Indians, for although the passing foreigner seldom fails to pay it a visit, it is to the Indian that the Garden would seem to make the greatest appeal. And this is true of the visitor from other parts no less than of the local inhabitant. In a sense the Garden is very much an indigenous institution and this is not for wonder when the Indian's love of plants and the part that these play in his religious beliefs and observance is borne in mind. Whatever may happen to certain aspects of Garden activities in the new order about to be fulfilled, it may confidently be held that the general activities for which this institution stands will find assured support in the hearts of the great mass of the population of this country.

But for their position on the right bank and the consequent inconvenience of approach, the Gardens would assuredly attract a greater number of visitors, and it only takes a new means of access to increase a popularity as deserved as it is already well established. Will the completion during the year of the tunnel that is to serve as the electric main subway prove the pointer to what access of the future will be? One hopes that this may be so and that the Gardens will be brought no further distant from Calcutta than a trip once round the maidan.

Reference was made in last year's report to the building to be erected by the Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation over the exit of the Company's river tunnel. This year sees the project completed and a stately building near the ghat is now available for the service of the public. It is proposed to equip it as a refreshment kiosk and to combine with this service the purpose of a museum in which will be shown, in the form of its furniture and fittings, all the more valuable classes of Indian timbers that can be grown in the Garden. Thanks are due to the Calcutta Electric Supply Corporation for the ready realisation of requirements and for the generous manner in which they combined the Company's needs with Garden requirements.

The season was, on the whole, favourable for horticultural operations. Rainfall, though short during the monsoon months, was well distributed, but the late heavy rains ruined the cold weather annuals here as it did elsewhere about Calcutta and a fresh sowing had to be made. The result of this was, however, evident in an unusually fine display of flowers in the already warm season of 1933, and evidence was gained of the value of late sowings for such displays during the beginning of the hot weather.

In addition to the permanent cold weather gardens and in continuation of the practice of late years, staging out of potted plants in the more frequented parts of the Garden was resorted to.

Shortage of funds again necessitated very careful distribution of labour to maintain the Garden in a fit state for the use of the public. But the use of the tractor with its motor mower attachments has done much of recent years to replace classes of labour, and the speed and thoroughness with which it gets over the more open areas of the Garden has to no small extent helped to ease the conditions resulting from the prevailing shortage of funds.

The Garden roads were given as much attention as was possible by means spared from the Garden allotment proper. They have been liberally treated with surfacing materials and are in a very much better state than formerly. The handing over of the river bank revetment work to the Irrigation Department has relieved the Garden's budget of burden that it could ill support, and the result has been the diversion of rather more funds than usual to roads work for which, as yet, no regular provision has been possible. The river bank has been greatly improved since the Irrigation Department started work, and it is certain that a saving should ultimately result from the superior class of work now carried out. Attention has been confined to the bank west of the landing stage, but next year should see this section finished and the beginning of a retaining terrace opposite the new kiosk just east of the landing stage. Retaining walls at this point should supply the initial means for carrying out a scheme of first importance to the improvement of this section of the Garden. The present unsightly building that meets the visitor's eye on landing from the river will be removed to allow a view of the kiosk, and the bank east of the ghat will then be improved to bring it into harmony with the shaded lawns and grounds of the kiosk itself.

The usual attention was given to the plant houses and, since his return from study leave, Mr. Mitra, the Curator, has considerably improved the collection of Orchids. These are not merely being worked back to the importance they once held as Garden collections, but breeding experiments with some of the hardier varieties are being made in an attempt to increase the variety and attractiveness of our stocks and, if possible, to produce something of permanent horticultural value.

Experiments of a somewhat similar kind have been undertaken with Amherstia nobilis, a species which, in flower, is one of the most arresting to be found in Gardens anywhere. With the extreme development of the flower in this species seems to be correlated a loss in ability to produce fertile seed and the plant is, therefore, more limited in its world distribution than it would otherwise be. Experiments being carried out here point to the importance of artificial pollination at a suitable time and these are being continued in an attempt to secure small quantities of viable seed for distribution.

The usual number of new additions was made to the Garden and fresh labelling work continued.

Attempts to increase the age of some prominent Garden trees have not been uniformly successful. The Banyan Tree, although markedly on the wane, still retains something of its original magnificence, but the fine specimen of Ficus altissima near the ghat has had to be removed. Reference was made to this tree's state in last year's report and to the efforts being made to preserve it. These have not been successful and it has been removed to give place to a young tree.

2. Plant and seed exchange.—For horticultural and roadside planting schemes some 11,260 plants were despatched to institutions in India, and 1,783 plants were received together with 217 packets and 55lb. of seed. Distributions and receipts were to and from a world-wide circle of correspondents. Some 298 packets and 38lb. of seed went out.

3. Herbarium and Library.—The usual numbers of specimens were received, identified and incorporated. Some twelve correspondents originated enquiries and supplied material which has been responsible for most of the 3,377 identifications made.

The Eastern Himalaya and Assam have been the chief centres from which identification work has been demanded. Mr. P. Kanjilal and Mr. A. Das, both of the Forest Department, have been present personally in the Herbarium for periods during the year and have been engaged in Assam collections. There has also been a regular supply of specimens for identification in connection with the preparation of the Flora of this province.

High altitude plants from His Highness the Maharaja of Sikkim were dealt with partly here and partly at Edinburgh where the Primulas especially had to go.

Mr. Parkinson's specimens have all been examined and returned, and the Curator of the Herbarium has been engaged in working out a collection of some 1,500 Naga and Manipur plants.

Active exchange relations have been maintained with botanical institutions in India and abroad. Special mention may be made this year of plants from China and Japan and the Philippines, but accessions have been from a worldwide area. The total number received was 2,246 sheets and distributed 1,402 sheets.

Co-operation in the study of certain problem bearing on disease has been called for by authorities at the School of Tropical Medicine and freely given. Thus collections of different kinds of pollen were made under the supervision of the Superintendent and sent to Colonel Acton; and Colonel Stewart has had botanical material of Dendrocalamus strictus, a bamboo, also for disease investigations.

Although the collection, growing and distribution of seeds and plants is a regular feature of the horticultural side of the Garden's activities, special work of a purely scientific or purely botanical nature devolves on the Herbarium rather than on the gardening staff and an increasing number of these special requests come to be dealt with. Much material required for museum, for instance, calls for special attention and the demand for medicinal plants and plant products and for information relative to such plants is usually dealt with centrally. The collection of seeds of Indian Trapus dealt with during the year typified such work.

With the gradual increase in the number of universities and other institutions engaged in such work, interest in an over-widening sphere of botanical activity demands that steps should follow to make the botanical collections and the literature at Sibpur available for wider circles, and co-operation in the way of loan and in the supply of miscellaneous literary information and books forms a regular feature of the work at Sibpur. Several hundreds of sheets were out on loan to different institutions and the subject-matter dealt with in correspondence varied to a degree that only those who have to collect and sift it can appreciate.

About 6,046 specimens have been mounted during the year and general repair work including remounting covered 4,765 sheets. Some 1,467 covers have been changed and 5,464 sheets incorporated.

The curtailment of funds again limited field work to what may prove to be the last exploration of the South Burma area. A collection of 600 specimens made at a time of year when the carpet vegetation is at its best will supplement the richer collections of woody plants made earlier. Much of this year's collection is of herbaceous material.

Visitors to the Herbarium have been given all possible help and facilities for work.

The Herbarium was honoured by a visit from His Excellency the Governor shortly after his arrival in India.

The usual routine work of the library was carried on. The number of journals has been maintained and a small saving accruing from plates work—due to the balance available having been insufficient to cover a draw of four plates—has been made available for the purchase of a few much needed books. A separation of the allotment for books and plates has now been made, but the amount remaining for books is sufficient for the maintenance of journals only. The windfall of the small amount saved from plates is, therefore, well utilised in the acquisition of botanical literature that the premier botanical library in India cannot and ought not to be without.

4. Publications.—In the Press is Sir David Prain and Mr. Burkill's monograph of the genus Dioscorea, the question of the production of plates for which has been receiving the special attention of Government. The financing of this publication is proving somewhat difficult, but the very high standard of the work has been recognised and there is some hope that the former rate of issue which had to be curtailed for financial reasons, may be resumed.

Mr. Biswas, the Curator, has published several papers chiefly of an algological nature during the year and in collaboration with the writer is engaged in a treatise on water plants intended, chiefly, for the use of Public Health Officers. Mr. Narayanaswami's paper on the Malayan localities of early collections is in the Press and will shortly appear in the Journal of the Asiatic Society.

5. Finance.—Out of a total budget allotment of Rs. 55,360 for staff and permanent establishment, Rs. 55,286 were spent and under all other heads the expenditure amounted to Rs. 49,328 against the total allotment of Rs. 49,793. A sum of Rs. 150 was surrendered under the head "Allowances, honoraria, etc.—Non-voted." There was a net saving of Rs. 388 under all heads during the year. Receipts of the Department during the year amounted to Rs. 679.

6. Staff.—The writer held charge as Superintendent throughout the year. Mr. K. P. Biswas was Curator of the Herbarium and Mr. J. E. Leslie, Curator of the Garden till 29th November 1932, when he went on 20 days' leave preparatory to retirement. Mr. N. Mitra, who was on study leave in Europe, resumed his substantive post of Curator on the 30th November, 1932. Mr. M. Jones was Assistant Curator of the Calcutta Gardens throughout the year and Mr. Md. Quasem Ali officiated in the post of Assistant Curator at Sibpur.

Overseers were Mr. K. S. Joneja at the Royal Botanic Gardens and Mr. G. Mohiuddin at the Calcutta Gardens.

Babu Ashutosh Banerjee held the post of Head Clerk throughout the year. All officers and the clerical establishment have performed their duties willingly and satisfactorily.

CALCUTTA GARDENS.

Work in these gardens was again mainly of a routine character. About 100 specimen plants were added to the three gardens comprising this group and some 25 new plants added to the Orchid House.

The proximity of the Eden and Curzon Gardens to the football grounds creates a horticultural difficulty all of its own, for football crowds are the same all the world over. When an excited crowd of several thousands breaks loose either in the joy of victorious supporters or in the despondency of the vanquished, little thought is taken of the sanctity of garden lawns and flower beds. There would appear to be only one reliable method of regulating such crowds across the gardens. A hedge by itself is quickly broken through, but when it secretes in addition several strands of barbed wire, it becomes formidable to a degree that causes the trespasser to consider whether it might not be better after all to make the regular detour. One does not care to resort to such protection but at special points there would seem to be no alternative.

About a thousand Canna plants and a like number of other ornamental and flowering shrubs were supplied to the Council Chamber grounds and planted under the supervision of the Assistant Curator, and the Gardener in charge of these grounds frequently calls for and obtains the advice of Eden Garden officers.

The lease of the fishing rights in the Eden Gardens has not terminated very successfully. The attempt to balance the liability of keeping the lakes clean and paying a small sum against the privilege of collecting the fish has broken down and we are back again at the old and unsatisfactory method of surface cleaning. But excavation to a limited extent was possible and this will be continued as funds permit.

In horticultural operations the Assistant Curator has paid special attention to bulbous and herbaceous foliage plants and the garden now possesses good examples of species of Caladium, Amaryllis and Lilies.

The claims of the roads had to make way for the work to be done on the tanks, but even so, some 60,000 square feet of road were redressed in greater or less degree and the roads are still in fair condition.

Passers-by will notice that the Curzon Gardens are gradually becoming more park-like. The small tree and shrub additions made some five or six years ago begin to stand out, but it must be some years ere the trees give the degree of shade that is hoped for.

Carpentry work including the repairing and painting of benches and sign boards was carried out in all the gardens as required.

Finance.—Out of a total budget allotment of Rs. 29,316 under all heads, Rs. 29,311 were spent. Receipts during the year from these gardens amounted to Rs. 218.

LLOYD BOTANIC GARDEN, DARJEELING.

Rainfall for the year at the Lloyd Botanic Garden was 104 inches. This is much below the average, and as the cold weather and early hot weather rains were in marked defect, there was some difficulty in rearing the summer annuals.

Work in the garden was mostly of a routine character but a few minor improvements were effected including the construction of ferro-concrete steps at the conservatory and the placing of suitable flower bowls. The lawns were combed and purged of insect disease and grass re-established where moss had gained a complete hold.

The position that the Lloyd Botanic Garden occupies could scarcely be bettered for the cultivation and acclimatisation of medium and high level Eastern Himalayan plants. Amongst others, this year figures quite a number of species of Meconopsis and Primulas, for the seed of which there is frequent demand from gardens in all the temperate regions of the world.

Some contraction has taken place in the work of collecting and distributing the higher Alpine varieties, but so far as opportunity presents, this valuable adjunct to the work of the Curator is being preserved and it is to be hoped it may be continued, for no botanical service from the Eastern Himalayas could so ill be spared abroad as that rendered by the collector of its natural treasures.

Experiment is being continued in the garden for the acclimatisation of plants from other levels and seed of these reserved for distribution. Some packets of seed of the choicer Alpines went to His Majesty's Royal Gardens to supplement earlier despatches of plants from Bhutan. Amongst acclimatised seed distributions appear Cathcartia villosa, Meconopsis Wallichii and Lilium nepalense.

Some 250 young trees and shrubs were added to the garden during the year in replacement of casualties or as new additions and 18 new flower beds were laid out.

Although the prevailing economic conditions have hit Darjeeling as a centre of attraction for the plainsmen and visitors are not so numerous as formerly, the garden continues to offer, in a manner as pronounced as formerly, its æsthetic, educational and recreational attractions to all who take the trouble of the climb back.

Finance.—Out of a total budget allotment of Rs. 15,199 under all heads, Rs. 14,388 were spent and a sum of Rs. 690 was surrendered leaving a net saving of Rs. 121 under all heads.

FINAL FORECAST OF THE JUTE CROP, 1933.

Consolidated statement for Bengal, Bihar and Orissa and Assam.

Area.—The revised estimated area for the three provinces is 2,491,000 acres, an increase of 347,900 acres as compared with the revised final forecast for 1932. The total increase as compared with the acreage in the Preliminary Forecast for 1933, is due to revision in the Bihar and Orissa and Assam estimates.

Yield.—It is estimated that this crop will yield 7,933,200 bales of jute, exceeding last year's total (revised) by 836,100 bales.

The consolidated returns are as follows:—

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Final Forecast of the Jute Crop of Bengal, 1933.

[NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1931-32, the area under jute in Bengal, to which this forecast relates, represents some 88·3 per cent. of the total area under jute in British India.]

Season.—As reported in the first forecast, conditions were, on the whole, favourable for sowing. Monsoon weather proved beneficial for the growth in West Bengal and for harvesting operation in North and East Bengal, although in the early part of the season temporary lack of steeping water was felt in parts of North Bengal.

Condition of the crop.—The crop in East Bengal is generally regarded as good, on the whole; elsewhere, it is satisfactory.

Area of the crop.—The area under jute is 2,168,700 acres as against 1,845,700 acres (revised) in 1932.

Outturn.—As in previous years, the percentage figures are calculated on the basis of divisional normals which remain as follows:—

	Bales per acre.
Dacca and Chittagong Divisions	... 3·7
Rajshahi Division	... 3·5
Presidency and Burdwan Divisions	... 3·2

The total outturn of the crop is estimated at 7,092,100 bales as against 6,213,500 bales (revised) last year.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BIHAR AND ORISSA.

Final forecast of the jute crop of Bihar and Orissa, 1933.

NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1931-32, the area under jute, to which the Bihar and Orissa forecast relates, represents about 7·3 per cent. of the total area under jute in British India.]

Acreage.—The final district returns of the eight jute-growing districts of the province show an area under jute of 192,100 acres. Last year's estimate of the area under the crop was 170,000 acres.

Weather conditions.—In March light rain fell in the Santal Parganas, Cuttack, Balasore and in parts of all the jute-growing districts except Darbhanga where there was no rain. The fall was below normal everywhere. In April light to moderate rain fell in all the jute districts. The fall was above normal everywhere except Cuttack. In May rain fell in all the jute districts. The fall was moderate and above the normal everywhere except Purnea where it was slightly below normal. In June moderate rain fell in all the jute districts. The fall was below normal everywhere except Darbhanga, Purnea and Cuttack. In July rain fell in all the districts. The fall was above normal everywhere except Purnea and the Santal Parganas. In August rain fell in all the jute districts, the fall being below normal everywhere except Bhagalpur, the Santal Parganas and Cuttack. The weather conditions are reported to have not been favourable in the most important jute district of Purnea and fair to good in the remaining jute districts.

Outturn.—In the important jute districts of Purnea and Cuttack the outturn of the crop has been estimated at 40 and 76 per cent. of the normal respectively. Champaran reports 95 per cent., Muzaffarpur, Darbhanga, Bhagalpur, the Santal Parganas and Balasore report 72, 44, 58, 65 and 71 per cent., respectively.

On the basis of the area and percentage outturn reported by the District Officers the average condition of this year's crop for the province comes to 45 per cent. against 56 per cent. last year. But, in my opinion, this is an underestimate, and the condition factor will not be less than 70 per cent. of the normal. Recent enquiries about the normal outturn per acre show that the normal outturn per acre is $3\frac{1}{2}$ bales, and on this basis the gross outturn on 192,100 acres estimated to be under jute in this province comes to 448,200 bales against 518,500 bales last year. The import of jute from Nepal estimated at 25,000 bales brings the total of the province to 473,200 bales.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, ASSAM.Final Forecast of the jute crop of Assam, 1933.

[NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1931-32, the area under jute in Assam represents 5·3 per cent. of the total area under jute in British India.]

Season.—As indicated in the preliminary forecast, the weather in the early part of the season was generally favourable for the crop, but subsequently heavy rain in June, in the Surma Valley, checked the proper growth of the crop to a certain extent, while in the Assam Valley some damage was caused by continuous rain followed by drought in some places. Insects also caused some injury.

2. Area.—As estimated by the Deputy Commissioners, the area under jute is 130,200 acres as compared with last year's actual area of 127,400 acres and this year's preliminary forecast of 120,800 acres. The areas reported in the preliminary forecast have been revised in five districts.

3. Outturn.—The outturn per acre has been estimated to be 81 per cent. of the normal against 76 per cent. (revised) of last year. Taking 3·5 bales of 400 lbs. each of jute fibre as the normal yield per acre, the total produce of the province this year amounts to 367,900 bales against 340,100 bales (revised) of last year, or an increase of 8 per cent.

Cachar ..	200	200	300	80	80	600	800	Middle of August. Early.	The increase in area is due to favourable weather at sowing time but subsequently heavy rain interfered with the proper growth of the crop to a certain extent and hence the outturn is estimated to be below normal.
Sylhet ..	15,000	9,100	14,600	90	60	28,700	30,700	Middle of August. Normal.	Comparative rise in the price of jute is the cause of increase in area. The weather was generally favourable for the cultivation and growth of the crop but heavy rain in June checked the growth to some extent and hence the low outturn.
Goalpara ..	60,000	37,200	40,000	60	85	78,100	119,000	First week of July. Normal.	Favourable weather condition at sowing time of the crop accounts for the increase in area. The weather was generally favourable for the crop and a better outturn than last year is expected.
Kamrup ..	28,000	21,400	22,100	75	75	56,200	58,000	Middle of August. Normal.	The weather was generally favourable but some damage was caused to the crop by drought and insects and hence the low estimated outturn.
Darrang ..	12,600	12,200	11,700	75	80	32,000	32,800	End of June. Early.	The weather was generally favourable but in June there was a drought which checked the proper growth of the crop. Insects also caused some damage in places.
Nowgong ..	50,000	42,200	36,200	90	90	132,900	114,000	The weather was on the whole favourable for the cultivation and growth of the crop although drought and insects caused a little damage in places.
Sibsagar ..	400	200	300	85	80	600	800	Middle of August. Normal.	Favourable weather condition in the beginning of the season accounts for the increase in area. Continuous rain from June to middle of July followed by drought caused slight damage to the crop.
Lakhimpur ..	1,000	800	500	85	90	2,400	1,600	First week of September. Normal.	The decrease in area is due to the low price of jute. The weather was rainy during June and first part of July, followed by drought which affected the crop slightly.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
BENGAL.

Dacca, the 15th September 1933.

Monthly Weather and Crop Report of Bengal for August 1933.

I. Character of the season.—During the month under review, the rainfall was below the normal in two districts, while elsewhere it was much above the average. The usual rainfall statement is appended.

II. Progress of agricultural operations.—Harvesting of autumn paddy, cutting, steeping and washing of jute were proceeding favourably, but more rain was needed to facilitate the transplanting operation of winter paddy in parts of North Bengal during the first part of the month.

III. State of standing crops.—The outlook of standing crops was reported to be promising on the whole.

IV. Prospects and probable outturn.—The prospects of standing crops were generally fair. The outturn of sugarcane is expected to be fairly satisfactory.

V. Damage to standing crops.—Some damage was caused to low-land paddy in places by heavy rain.

VI. Condition of agricultural stock.—The condition of live-stock was, on the whole, fair. Sporadic cases of cattle-disease, however, were reported from eight districts of the Presidency and from the Cooch-Bihar and Tripura States.

VII. Failure of pasturage and fodder.—Insufficiency of fodder was reported from parts of Murshidabad and Midnapore.

VIII. Prices of food-grains.—During the second fortnight of the month, the retail prices of common rice of the cheapest quality rose in nine districts, fell in four and remained stationary in the rest of the Presidency. The prices ranged from 10½ seers per rupee at Noakhali to 15 seers per rupee in Midnapore, Rajshahi and Dacca.

IX. The condition of agricultural population.—The condition of agricultural population is, on the whole, fair except in parts of Murshidabad, where distress still continues.

The following new works were undertaken during the year :—

(a) Remodelling of the Small Carnivora House.—The grilled cages in front of the Small Carnivora House and the adjoining verandah which have never been satisfactory, chiefly owing to difficulties of sanitation, were removed and it was decided to rebuild the entire series. The work was taken in hand at the end of the year and has been two-thirds completed and when finished the house will be greatly improved in every way.

(b) Extension of the Pheasant Enclosure.—The collection of pheasants having gradually increased, it was decided to construct another range of aviaries in continuation of the existing enclosure on its east side. The work was nearing completion at the end of the year.

(c) The roof of the Sarnomoyi House developed numerous leaks and required attention. The whole roof was treated with Hydrotite water-proofing fabric.

(d) The old wire-netting of the Schwendler House was found to require renewal. It was thoroughly overhauled and in place of ordinary wire-netting linked wire-netting was used. The iron work was repaired where necessary and the house repainted.

(e) Raising the boundary wall.—The boundary wall of the Garden on the south-western side between the Indian Station Hospital and the Garden was found to be too low and has been raised by two feet.

(f) The iron gratings under the bridge near the Sarnomoyi House having been found rotten have been renewed.

The Annual Repairs of the Garden were carried on as usual with the exception of the boundary wall. All large houses were cleaned, repaired and repainted, of which the following is a list:—

(1) Dumraon House.—The house was thoroughly repaired and sand-plastering done. The inside walls were lime-washed and outside walls colour-washed. The iron bars of some of the inner cages were renewed, and the beams and rafters were painted.

(2) Gubbay House.—The inner walls were lime-washed and outer walls were repaired and colour-washed.

(3) Kangaroo Enclosure.—The rooms were white-washed and the wire-netting of the outer fencing and the partitions were repaired.

(4) Paddocks.—Extensive repairs were done to the paddocks. The sheds were repaired as far as possible and lime-washed and wood and iron work painted and the iron fencing was coal-tarred.

(5) Sarnomoyi House.—Thorough repairs were done to this house. The sand-plastering and the wood work of the inner house had been considerably damaged by parrots and Rosente Cockatoos and were repaired. The iron work of the outer enclosure was thoroughly scraped and painted.

(6) Reptile House.—The inside walls were scraped carefully and white-washed. The ornamental railings round the basins and the pillars were painted and the glass cases varnished. The venetian red colour of the exterior of the building was considered unsuitable to the surrounding grounds. The walls were therefore covered with sand-plaster and the surface was painted white.

(7) Burdwan House.—The roof was overhauled and made watertight. The sand-plaster was scraped off where necessary and new sand-plaster substituted. The outer and inner dens were repaired and lime-washed and out-side walls colour-washed. The iron bars of the cages were painted.

(8) Servants' Quarters.—These needed repairs and were overhauled. The rooms were put in good repairs, cleaned and painted. The outside walls colour-washed.

The following buildings were repaired and repainted:—

Entrance Lodge and office, Refreshment Pavilion, Sonebursa Enclosure, Murshidabad House, Indian Refreshment Rooms.

The following houses were repaired and colourwashed:—

Ezra House.

Jheend House.

Rodent House.

Tapir Enclosure.

Bear House.

Store godown.

The usual work in the care and maintenance of lawns, trees and shrubs, walks and roads was carried on throughout the year. In addition to ordinary routine work new flowering shrubs were planted and old trees were replaced by others. There has been a marked improvement in the general cleanliness of the Garden. Many exhibits were displayed at the Agri-Horticultural Show and the Garden was awarded several prizes.

The finances of the Garden are satisfactory to the extent that expenditure is balanced by income. An increase in the receipts from visitors, which amounted to Rs. 62,231-6 as against Rs. 62,141-6 in the previous year, is satisfactory though negligible in amount. The balance in hand, viz., Rs. 4,095-3-1, is by no means an excessive margin against a diminution of receipts or extraordinary expenditure due to casualties in the collection or other unforeseen causes. The 20 per cent. cut in the annual Government grant which was made in the year under review has resulted in a curtailment of expenditure which in no circumstances exceeds the actual needs of the Garden and it is hoped that the grant will be restored in full in future.

The following is a comparative statement of visitors and receipts for the last four years:—

	Visitors.	Receipts.
		Rs.	as.
1929-30	.. 1,109,901	75,609	3
1930-31	.. 979,604	66,082	13
1931-32	.. 928,501	62,141	6
1932-33	.. 930,004	62,231	6

A large number of children under four years of age and school children, attended by their teachers, were admitted free.

In addition 48,001 persons visited the Garden on free days. A detailed statement of the number of visitors and receipts appears in Appendix B.

The Annual Fancy Fair was held as usual on the 31st December 1932 and 2nd January 1933 and the arrangement for admitting one-anna visitors into the grounds not reserved for the Fancy Fair proved a great success as the turnstiles recorded 19,559 one-anna visitors as against 15,984 visitors in the previous year.

The thanks of the Committee are due to those ladies and gentlemen who have added to the Zoological collection a list of whom is given in Appendix C. Thanks are also due to those who kindly offered to present animals to the Garden, but whose offers could not be accepted either because the particular species was already sufficiently well represented or owing to want of accommodation.

The Committee also desire to express their thanks to the following Railway and Steamer Companies for kindly conveying the animals belonging to the Garden free of charge:—

East Indian Railway, British India Steam Navigation Co., Ltd., Penninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Co., through Messrs. Mackinnon Mackenzie & Co., and River Steam
 Navigation Co., Ltd., through Messrs. Macneill and Co.,
 and Messrs. Hoare, Miller and Co.

The Corporation of Calcutta sanctioned a grant of Rs. 26,233-6 to the Garden for the year under report, and the amount of the rate bills in respect of the Garden was adjusted against the grant as the rate bills fell due. The Committee desire to take this opportunity of expressing their renewed thanks to the Corporation of Calcutta for their generous contribution to the funds of the Garden.

Thanks are also due to the Officer Commanding and Officers of the 1st Battalion, 5th Mahratta Light Infantry, stationed at Alipur, for permitting their regimental band to play at the Garden on Tuesday afternoons, free of charge.

The Committee are much indebted to those members of the public who send old and broken-down horses to the Zoological Garden, where they are disposed of under the most humane conditions.

President.

Honorary Secretary.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

I have the honour to submit my report on the condition and progress of the Zoological collection.

The following comparative table shows the numbers of the various collections during the last four years:—

	Mammals.	Birds.	Reptiles.
1929-30	302	1,299	130
1930-31	381	1,719	186
1931-32	372	1,837	126
1932-33	415	2,373	190

The general condition of the animals specially of the older inhabitants of the Gardens has been good. With the exception of a few cases of Foot and Mouth Disease amongst the ruminants and Mycosis amongst the newly acquired pheasants there has been no epidemic of any kind.

The most important acquisition during the year was a female Indian Rhinoceros presented by His Excellency Lord Willingdon to mate with the male Rhinoceros which Her Excellency the Countess of Willingdon had kindly presented to the Garden last year. These are the most valuable animals in the collection and are greatly admired by the visitors.

A pair of Stanley Cranes which had been on exhibition for over 30 years died of old age and general debility. Other extremely old specimens that died during the year was a Banteng bull. It was the last survivor of the herd of Bantengs which flourished once upon a time at the Garden. We also lost a fine pair of young Brazilian Tapirs. These animals were exhibited in the big lake into which a pair of newly-imported Pigmy Hippopotamii were put. The Hippos and the Tapirs lived together on friendly terms for several months but one morning one of the Tapirs was found dead and the post-mortem examination revealed death due to Asthenia. No clue could be found out as to the circumstances under which the animal died till one day after three weeks the female hippo made a sudden and unprovoked attack on the surviving tapir and though immediate help was given and the poor animal was separated it died within a few hours. The death of the first tapir might be due to the fact that the hippos chased it at night till the animal collapsed in a state of exhaustion from which it never recovered.

A male tiger named "Chandi", presented to the Gardens when it was only a young cub, grew up to a fine big specimen. One day while swallowing a big lump of horse flesh it got choked and died immediately before any help could be given.

There were other losses by death of smaller animals, birds and reptiles but most of them were due to causes for which the management of the Garden could not be held responsible.
